Failure To Heed Signs Brings Crashes

Crippling Mishaps And Death May Often Result

Drivers who dash out from a side road onto a main highway without stopping for a stop sign, slowing down or looking take an unnecessary risk.

Often such motorists end up in a hospital scarcely aware of what hit them. If the oncoming vehicle was traveling fast enough, some of them never make it to the hospital—they go the funeral home instead.

ALMOST ANY DRIVER you talk to would deny he or she ever pulled such a trick, but accident statistics belie them. Records of the Marion post of the state highway patrol show that a sizable share of area accidents are caused by this one driving error.

Many times, drivers pull onto a main highway from a side road without stopping because they "just weren't thinking," and because they failed to pay heed to one of the highway "signs of life"—a stop sign at the intersection.

Cpl. D. M. Dewalt of the Marion highway patrol points out that there are other inconsiderate, discourteous drivers who deliberately drive onto a through road expecting all other traffic to make way for them.

Regardless of the reason, the results are the same. Someone is seriously hurt, maimed, or killed and two or more automobiles are badly damaged or destroyed.

In addition to the risk of injury or death, such drivers run the risk of arrest for violation of state traffic laws.

A "SIGN OF LIFE" was disregarded by the driver of the light-colored car shown here as he pulled from a side road onto a busy main highway in the path of an approaching car. The sign of life is the octagonal shaped stop sign visible at far right in the photograph. Failure to obey these and other traffic signs leads to serious accidents, injury and sometimes death.

One section of the Motor Vehicle Laws of Ohio specifically rules that:

"The operator of a vehicle, intending to enter a through highway, shall yield the right of way to all other vehicles . . . on said through highway."

The section continues: "The operator of a vehicle . . . shall stop in obedience to a stop sign at an intersection and shall yield the right of way to all other vehicles . . . not obliged to stop."

ANOTHER SECTION on this same general subject is that "the operator of a vehicle . . . about to enter or cross a highway from a private road, driveway, alley or building shall stop and yield the right of way to all traffic approaching on said highway."

Local state patrolmen make a practice of enforcing these and similar laws as evidenced by the number of hearings in Marion Municipal Court on the charge of "failure to yield the right of way." Drivers arrested on this charge normally are fined $15 and costs by Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen.

Cpl. Dewalt said that drivers who ignore stop signs are the ones most likely to ignore other "signs of life" and are only setting themselves up for a quick trip to another world. "Signs of Life" are traffic signs, signals and pavement markings which remind motorists and pedestrians of the law warn of potential dangers ahead, he explained.

To many, a $15 and cost fine for violation of such laws is nothing, to others it's a great deal. Regardless of this, the real penalty for drivers who pull such boners usually comes with a crash.

Senate-House Committee Writes Compromise Law To Ban Communist Party

France Holds Key to Future Of EDC Pact

No Progress Reported Toward Ratification as Premier Stands Firm

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—French Premier Pierre Mendes-France, who wants to revamp the European Defense Community treaty, outlined his views of the continent's political aspects before foreign ministers of the five other prospective partners today.

Paul-Henri Spaak, Belgian foreign minister and president of the conference, appeared discouraged as the group broke up after a meeting of almost two hours on general aspects of the crisis provoked by Mendes-France's proposed changes.

Refuses To Comment

Spaak refused to make any statement, saying it was too early to know what might develop. The ministers planned to continue the general discussion this afternoon.

Only 15 men attended this morning's meeting. The ministers sought an intimate atmosphere for a free discussion of their views. West Germany and Italy had three representatives present, and the other four nations—France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—two each. One member of the conference secretariat rounded out the group.

Those who attended the talks were reluctant to comment as they emerged.

It was reported, however, that Mendes-France had assured the ministers his great aims are to find some way to tie Germany to the Western alliance, to permit the rearmament of Germany, to give German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer help in his difficult internal political situation and to get a European organization started.

New Big Four Meeting

There was also a report he had sounded out the other ministers about a possible new Big Four meeting with Russia to seek a German peace settlement. The United States and Britain oppose such a meeting at this time.

Russia recently approached the West with two proposals that appeared designed primarily to torpedo the EDC.

One was for an early Big Four foreign ministers' parley on Germany. The other was for a conference of all European countries, the United States and Red Chinese observers to work out an East-West security or nonaggression scheme.

J. W. Beyen, Dutch foreign minister, was said to have spoken extemporaneously, in a critical tone, of Mendes-France's assessment of the European political situation. Spaak's address was reported to have been milder.

Membership Not Classified As Criminal

Disputed Clause Cut; Senator Says Group In Complete Accord

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A compromise bill outlawing the Communist party—but not making membership in it illegal—cleared the Senate today and was sent to the House for final action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House conferees came up with a compromise anti-Communist bill today by dropping a provision making mere membership in the Communist Party punishable by fine and imprisonment.

In its place, they put a clause saying a person who is a member of a Communist-action group shall be subject to the penalties provided in the 1950 Internal Security Act.

The 1950 law, of which Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) was the author, provides that members of Communist-action groups shall be barred from defense plants, from employment by the federal government and from obtaining a passport.

In addition, if they fail to register with the attorney general as required by law, they are subject to imprisonment for five years and to a fine of $10,000.

The schedule called for the new compromise version to be submitted first to the Senate and then to the House.

Sen. Butler (R-Md) told reporters the Senate-House conferees agreed on it unanimously.

Other parts of the measure would strip the Communist party of its legal rights and privileges and deprive labor unions, found to be Communist-infiltrated, of their legal standing before the National Labor Relations Board.

Before the conference agreement, Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, said he was confident the group would produce a measure acceptable to Atty. Gen. Brownell.

Knowland said also he thought

2 Gunmen Rob Bank, Escape With $30,000

Duo Wearing Painters' Overalls Loots Vault at Gunpoint in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two gunmen wearing painters' overalls today held up the People's Savings & Loan Assn. and escaped with $30,000.

L. J. Linek, treasurer of the association at 4401 Clark Ave., who was forced to open the vault at pistol-point, estimated the loss.

The bandits, their faces covered with silk stockings, apparently were waiting in a parking lot in the rear of the bank.

They rammed a pistol into the back of Emil Pekar, 45, an escrow officer, as he entered a rear door shortly after 8:30 a. m., and demanded that he open the vault.

Miss Helen Cerny, 40, a teller, had arrived a few minutes earlier.

"I told them there was a time lock on it and it couldn't be opened until Linek got there," Pekar said.

The two then were bound with wire and forced to sit on the floor.

Linek, who arrived a short time later, said he was threatened with death unless he opened the vault. He said the men stuffed the money into two satchels and ran out a back door.

New Attempt Started

Indictment Sought In Lattimore Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government will seek a new perjury indictment against Owen Lattimore, controversial Far Eastern specialist, U.S. Atty. Leo A. Rover announced today.

In December, 1952, a federal grand jury indicted Lattimore, one-time Far Eastern affairs adviser to the state department, on seven counts of perjury growing out of his sworn testimony before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Two of those counts, including the key one—that he lied when he said he never was a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Red interests—later were thrown out on appeal on the ground that they were too vague.

Rover said he will not appeal to the Supreme Court for reinstatement of those two counts, but instead will offer new evidence to a grand jury beginning Sept. 13.

Rover said the evidence will include "certain aspects" of Lattimore's sworn testimony before the committee in February 1952, which were not included in the original indictment.

Should the grand jury vote additional charges against Lattimore, Rover said, the procedure will be to ask that they be consolidated with the five counts remaining in the original indictment.

In any event, Rover said, the government is prepared to bring Lattimore to trial on the five remaining counts.

$14,000 Blaze Levels Barn at Morral Farm

Lightning during today's early morning storm caused a $14,000 barn fire near Morral.

The large barn, owned by Samuel H. Foos of Grand Prairie Township, burned to the ground and most of its contents was also destroyed.

The barn was valued at $10,000 by Charles Faurot, fire chief of the Morral Community Fire Department, and $4,000 to its contents.

Machinery Saved

The barn was "all fallen in" when the fire department arrived, according to Faurot, but the Foos family had saved all but one piece of machinery and all the livestock.

Destroyed were 700 bales of hay, several bales of straw, some 250 bushels of wheat and 350 bushels of oats and a corn planter.

Twenty firemen from the Morral fire department who were called at 4 a.m. remained at the fire for two hours, saving a granary and shed only three feet from the barn. The contents and building were partially covered by insurance, Faurot said.

The state highway patrol was called to the scene by an unidentified man but the Morral Fire Department was there on the patrol's arrival.

Six Miles North

The Foos home is located six and one-half miles north on Route 23 and one-half mile west of the route on County Rd. 26.

Only storm damage reported in the city was that a power line was down at 1051 Mt. Vernon Ave. Police received the report at 3:50 a.m. today.

FOREIGN AID APPROVED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate today a bill providing 5¼ billion dollars to run the global military and economic aid program for the year ending in mid-1955. The total falls nearly 800 million dollars short of President Eisenhower's request.

Police Identify Palm Print in Sheppard Case

Is Son's; Hurts Story By Doctor That Wife Was Slain by Stranger

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cuyahoga County official says identification of a palm print found in the lakefront home where pretty Marilyn Sheppard was slain knocks the props from under a defense argument of her osteopath husband.

The print, which had puzzled investigators since Mrs. Sheppard's battered body was discovered July 4, belongs to her 7-year-old son Chip, Asst. County Prosecutor John J. Mahon said yesterday.

Now, Mahon said, Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, 30, can't use the print to support his story a stranger was in the house the morning of the murder. Sheppard has been indicted on a charge of first-degree murder.

He says a prowler murdered his 31-year-old wife, an expectant mother, and then injured him when he answered her call for help.

Authorities had collected prints from dozens of persons who might have been in the house before obtaining those of the youngster, who had been at a summer camp in Pennsylvania from the morning of the killing until last week.

Police fingerprint expert Jerome C. Peolking said it was the only legible print found after the bludgeoning. It was on a desk in the

Taft Supports U.S. Society at Clergy Meeting

Brother of Late Ohio Senator Gives Views At Church Gathering

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Charles P. Taft spoke up today for the American social and economic system before fellow Christians from many lands.

Taft, brother of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, voiced his views while delegates to the Assembly of the World Council of Churches were engaged in a round of discussions on the broad subject of a "responsible society."

"We Americans are a responsible society," Taft told an audience of visitors to the convention—a gathering of representatives of 163 denominations from 48 nations.

He mentioned social security, workmen's compensation for injuries on the job, the minimum wage law, the 40-hour week, farm price floors and public housing, and said:

"I am not reciting these facts to boast but to show you that we are not, and probably never have been, a laissez-faire capitalism. In

Caledonia Boy Victim of Polio

Marion Newman Jr. Is Second County Case

Marion Newman, Jr., 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Newman Sr. of Caledonia, today became the second polio victim in Marion County this year, the Marion County Health Department reported today.

The Caledonia teen-ager's illness was diagnosed as polio Wednesday at Children's Hospital in Columbus where he was taken Saturday following onset of the illness that day.

First polio case this year was reported Aug. 10 by the city health department when they received word from Children's Hospital that Melody Ann Crissinger, two and one-half year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crissinger of 597 Silver St. was a victim.

By this time last year a total of 15 cases in the city and county had been reported by the two health departments.

Congress Has Three Major Bills on Docket

Foreign Aid, Security System, Ban on Reds Still Left on Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second session of the 83rd Congress reached its final stages today, with only three major matters to be disposed of before a final gavel on all legislative business.

The three are a compromise foreign aid bill providing $2,781,000,000 in new cash, a bill to ban the Communist party and a bill to broaden and liberalize the social security system.

There was a chance all of these could be passed and sent to President Eisenhower by tonight. Some of the lawmakers thought tomorrow was more likely for the wind-up, and a few pessimists still expected the session to run over to early next week.

The way legislation has been taking a surprise turn at the last minute, there was just no telling.

When legislative business is completed, the House will be able to quit until January. But the Senate may come back later to dispose of the recommendations of its special committee on the motion to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

Senate-House conferees agreed on the compromise foreign aid appropriation yesterday, and it was expected to whip through both branches today in short order. This is the final money bill of the session.

However, the two other big mea-

New York Woman Gets $25,000 in Jewels Back

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Abraham Scheer got back the $25,000 worth of jewels she lost, thanks to cab driver Fritz Morris.

She left the gems in a small bag in Morris' taxi on Tuesday night. As soon as the cabbie found it, he turned it over to police.

Yesterday Mrs. Scheer, wife of a Fifth Avenue store executive, read about it in newspapers and promptly notified police. Her ownership was established by a detailed inventory of the jewelry.

Redeploying Forces

U.S. To Pull Four Full Divisions Out of Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will pull two thirds of its ground strength out of Korea in the next few months in carrying out a new military strategy to mount a flexible defense against Communist China and at the same time build up a central strategic reserve at home.

In the largest peacetime redeployment of American forces, announced yesterday, four full divisions will be withdrawn from Korea. Two divisions and smaller units will return to the United States, and Okinawa and Hawaii will be strengthened by one division each.

Immediate protests were launched in South Korea. All shops were closed and public transportation halted in Seoul during a protest rally which drew an estimated 100,000 persons to the city stadium.

Although two fewer divisions will be left in the western Pacific, defense officials interpreted the move as completely in step with President Eisenhower's clear-cut warning Tuesday against any Red attempt to invade Chinese Nationalist-held Formosa.

The new military thinking lays increased stress upon flexibility and the importance of the western Pacific defense line running from the Philippines in the south through Nationalist Formosa and Okinawa to Japan.

The strategy implies a strong U.S. determination to avoid fighting another major war strictly within the limits of the Korean peninsular.

When the troop reshuffling has been completed, probably next year, America's military lines will shape up like this:

Two U.S. divisions will remain in Korea to support a South Korean army now made up of 20 divisions and to be strengthened by additional American assistance. The British Commonwealth Division and smaller units from other Allied nations also remain in Korea.

Okinawa, now a major air base, is garrisoned by one Army regimental combat team, about 5,000 strong. The new emphasis upon the importance of that island won from Japan in World War II will send a full division to Okinawa, probably the 1st Marine Division

Death Claims de Gasperi, Former Premier of Italy

SELLA VAL SUGANA, Italy (AP)—Alcide de Gasperi, the lean old statesman who led Italy out of postwar chaos and onto the path of democracy, died today of a heart attack.

Death came to the former Premier as he rested here in his north Italy mountain retreat, far from Rome and the political wars in which he had battled without respite for nearly a decade.

His passing robbed the cause of European union of one of its staunchest supporters. Italy's struggle against communism lost one of its hardest fighters.

Although it was known the 73-year-old leader's health was failing, there had been no public hint he was seriously ill. Only after his death was it revealed that he had suffered a heart attack a week ago. His condition was not considered serious until Tuesday, when the heart pains became more intense.

He suffered another attack at 2 a.m. today and died an hour later after still another seizure. His family was at his bedside.

15 Airmen Held Political Prisoners, U.S. Claims

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today formally charged the Chinese Communists are holding 15 American airmen as "political prisoners."

A defense department statement said the Chinese Communists admitted at the recent conference at Geneva that the 15 are alive and that this has been verified by Americans, former prisoners of war, who have been exchanged since the armistice in Korea.

Mundt, Watkins in Difficulty

McCarthy Investigations Schedule Upset by Delays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Senate investigations involving Sen. McCarthy were threatened with schedule-upsetting delays today, but apparently not because of disputes over the controversial Wisconsin Republican.

Leaders of both Senate groups said the stumbling block was unexpectedly difficult work.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee, which conducted the 36 days of McCarthy-Army hearings, just about gave up hope of reaching a verdict by the end of this week — the date Chairman Mundt (R-SD) had set.

Watkins Sees Delay

And a special Senate committee headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) to study a proposed resolution of censure against McCarthy indicated it may have to postpone the start of public hearings beyond the scheduled premiere Aug. 30.

McCarthy announced he would enter no protest against a deferred start.

Edward Bennett Williams, McCarthy's counsel, said, "We have no plans to ask for a continuance," but it would be "working under pressure," he said, if he had to get ready his defense by Aug. 30.

Mundt said in an interview he still sees some hope of getting out a verdict by Saturday.

But Senators Jackson (D-Wash) and Dirksen (R-Ill), assigned by the other five subcommittee members to write a tentative draft report, expressed no such confidence. Jackson told reporters he doubts the job can be finished before Tuesday.

'Too Much Surplusage'

Dirksen said one delaying factor has been that the two-million-word official record of the McCarthy-Army hearings consists of "about two thirds surplusage — testimony entirely irrelevant to the charges."

At issue were accusations by Secretary of Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams that McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn, then chief counsel to the subcommittee, had exerted improper pressures to get special favors for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former subcommittee staff aide. For their part, McCarthy and Cohn accused

Baton Contest, Talent Display Slated at Fair

National Competition To Highlight Opening Of Six-Day Exposition

A nationwide baton-twirling contest and talent show will be held Saturday, opening day, at the Marion County Fair. Mrs. Dorothy Lovett, who is in charge of the affair, said the baton twirling event will be held from 9 to 11 in the morning, with the talent show scheduled to last from 1 to 4 p.m.

As a special attraction for Marion County talent, a special division will be set up at the talent show for Marion County residents. Another division will handle all talent from the rest of the state while a third division will be for out-of-state participants.

No advance entry is needed to get into the talent show. Those wishing to participate may do so by registering at noon Saturday at the grandstand.

A total of 52 trophies is being offered. So far 112 entries have been recorded for the morning event, with 83 registering for the talent show.

Dance studios will be represented by the Carole McKee Ogg Dance Studio of Mount Vernon; the Harold Hile Studio of Cleveland; the Katharine Cocharan Studio of Findlay; the Genevieve Swagler School of Leonardsburg; the Mary Whitman Studio of Windsor, Ont., Canada; the Mary Urton Dance Studio of Delaware, Marion, and Westerville; and the Harry Bracken Talent Studio of Dayton.

Only requirement for entry in the afternoon talent show is that the person furnish his or her accompanest or record. Custumes are desired, but not required.

Baskets of flowers will be presented by a local florist to the oldest woman present, the family which traveled the farthest to reach the fair, and to the top winner of the day in the talent and baton-twirling show.

Each person entering the talent show will receive a gold activity charm. One trophy for each 10 acts will be given in the afternoon. Presentation will be made at 4 p.m.

study, where papers had been strewn and drawers pulled out.

Sheppard reaffirmed his innocence yesterday in a 900-word statement released by his brother, Dr. Stephen Sheppard. In it, he said:

"I am more interested in the capture of my wife's murderer than any other person in the world."

He said Cleveland police tried only to wring a confession from him instead of trying to solve the crime. He was subjected to many hours of questioning, he said, and stopped talking "when the questioning became insulting and abusive."

Witness Heads Home

One of the state's important witnesses, Dr. Lester T. Hoversten, a guest in the Sheppard home until the eve of the killing, prepared to leave by plane today for his home in Glendale, Calif., after testifying before the grand jury.

Another Californian deemed important to the prosecution is 24-year-old Miss Susan Hayes, a former medical technician, who has admitted to police in signed statements that she was intimate with Sheppard.

Two other California women recently were questioned by Cleveland authorities in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles police quoted a 24-year-old legal secretary as saying she dated the osteopath in 1951, but broke off the friendship when she learned he was married. Police identified the second woman as the wife of an ostcopath who once worked with Sheppard.

Both women denied intimacies with the doctor, police said.

Ike on Illinois Leg of Initial Political Swing

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flew to Illinois today for the first speech in what amounts to a cross-country drive for a tighter Republican hold on Congress, and a later address on world affairs.

Aboard his personal plane Columbine, the President and his party headed first for Springfield and a frankly political appearance at Republican Day ceremonies at the Illinois State Fair.

Later in the afternoon he had a date to address the General Assembly of the World Council of Church on the Northwestern University campus at Evanston.

The speeches are only two of six which the President has definitely scheduled in states heading into crucial elections for the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The doubtful Senate contests into which the chief executive will throw the weight of White House prestige are in Illinois, Iowa, Oregon and California. His schedule also takes him into Washington State where there is no Senate race but seven House seats are at stake. Other presidential appearances are in the planning stage.

sures remained to be hammered out in conference.

The administration is opposed to a provision written into an anti-Communist bill by the Senate which would slap heavy penalties and fines on individual party members.

The conferees were seeking some way to meet administration objections, and still satisfy the majority in both Senate and House which have voted to ban the party through individual penalties. The Justice Department has expressed fear that making membership in the party illegal will interfere with prosecution of Red leaders under present laws.

The social security bill, a must item on the President's list and also that of nearly all of the lawmakers, is hung up over a controversy as to coverage.

Formosa, as Eisenhower noted, would be guarded by the U.S. 7th Fleet, which has been under orders to defend the island since the outbreak of the Korean War.

In Japan, where U.S. ground forces now include the Army's 1st Cavalry Division, the 3rd Marine Division and the 187th Army Regimental Combat Team, Army officials thought it likely the 1st Cavalry and the combat team would be among the units to come back to the United States. The 3rd Marine Division was expected to remain in Japan, for the time being at least, and one of the Army divisions to be pulled out of Korea may replace the cavalry.

Legion, Lions Club Collect $1,298 for Fight Against Polio

A total of $1,298 was collected last night for the Emergency March of Dimes when Lions Club and American Legion, Post No. 162, members manned 12 trucks in canvassing the city for contributions.

Originally it was planned to canvass the rural areas in addition to the city but a lack of trucks made this impossible, workers reported.

Heading the Lions Club members manning the trucks was Jack Cochran, and in charge of the Legion members was Don Williams.

The Emergency March of Dimes drive got under way Monday under the chairmanship of Bert Freed, and will continue through Aug. 31. Slogan for the campaign is "a dollar a family."

Police Recover Torture Gang Victim's Body

NEW YORK (AP)—The body of a Negro was recovered from the East River today and police said they believed he was a torture victim of Brooklyn's teen-age "Murder for Fun" gang.

Authorities said the boys had confessed beating a Negro, burning his feet with cigarettes and throwing him into the river last Monday night.

Police had been grappling in the river off the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn since shortly after four youths were arrested early this week for allegedly killing two men, beating others and whipping two girls for thrills.

While officials tried to determine why youths from good homes went on a sadistic orgy, two living victims of beatings came forward with more details of the horror story.

Extortion Plot Against Store Heiress Spiked

CLEVELAND (AP)—A tall, lean 37-year-old man complaining of stomach ulcers was in jail today in connection with an extortion threat against Miss Kay M. Halle, department store heiress.

Cleveland Heights police arrested the man, identified as James Howard Lett after he picked up a dummy package supposed to contain $20,000 in cash, Cleveland Heights Police Chief E. W. Gabriel said. The chief, who disclosed details of the plot, said Lett was not charged immediately.

Admits Writing Letter

Police said Lett, an unemployed machinist, admitted writing a letter received by Miss Halle on Saturday threatening her unless she planted the bundle of money under bushes on Coventry Road in the suburb.

A department store woman detective, wearing a blonde wig simulating Miss Halle's long blonde hair, left the package in accordance with instructions received in a phone call following the threatening letter.

Two detectives were also planted in the shrubbery, and they captured Lett when he stopped to pick up the package. He was unarmed.

Home for Funeral

A radio news correspondent, Miss Halle came here from Washington to attend funeral services last Friday for her father, Samuel Halle, chairman of the board of Halle Bros. Co.

Lett told police the plan to extort money from Miss Halle was masterminded by two strangers from Detroit whom he met in a bar. Police said Lett could not identify the men, who he said promised him $400 for helping.

Detectives later arrested a woman companion at Lett's home and brought her to Central Police Station for questioning.

Texas Collie Top Dog Hero for 1954

CHICAGO (AP) — America's dog hero of heroes for 1954 is Tang, a Texas-owned collie that has saved four children from possible death.

The title, $1,000 in saving bonds, a gold medal, gold plaque, gold-plated leash and collar and a year's supply of dog food were given the 65-pound Tang last night by the manufacturer of a dog food, Quaker Oats Co.

On four different occasions Tang pushed children from the path of automobiles. Among those he saved were a son and daughter of Tang's owners, Air Force Capt. and Mrs. Maurice L. Dyer of Denison, Tex.

The award was presented by Chicago Fire Capt. Joseph J. McCarthy, who himself won the medal of honor as a Marine corps officer in World War II.

French Inconsistent on Defense Policy

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — American hopes for a single European army, which could form a solid wall against Russian attack, were in danger of landing on history's scrap heap in Brussels today.

There, representatives of the six governments which would make up that army met so France could lay down her new terms for joining the European Defense Community (EDC). The other five are West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

France herself first proposed the single army. Having suggested it, she has stalled on joining it ever since, thus keeping it from coming into existence.

UNDER EDC, troops from all six nations would form a single army, wearing the same uniforms, using the same weapons. And all under a single command chosen by the six from among themselves.

After long, painful consultation, all six nations in May 1952 signed a treaty to create EDC. But the signing by the various foreign ministers wasn't enough. EDC couldn't be born until the parliaments of all six had ratified the agreement. The parliaments of West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg did so.

Italy still hasn't but that has not been considered a stumbling block. The Italians were expected to go along as soon as the French Parliament approved.

But the French Parliament, more than two years after the treaty was signed, hasn't acted. There are a number of reasons, mainly these: fear of a rearmed Germany, national pride, Russian influence.

The Russian influence showed in actions of the Communist members of the French Parliament. Russia doesn't want a rearmed West Germany, so they don't.

The nationalists don't like the idea of France becoming part of a multination military force which would mean a long step toward the end of a separate French army under full French control.

And there is the fear of Germany. After two world wars the French have reason to worry about a Germany rearmed. And letting West Germany into EDC would mean rearming her, although in a limited way. She'd have about 500,000 men in 12 divisions in EDC.

YET, PART OF THE original French thinking in suggesting EDC was that, if Germany were in EDC, she no longer would have her own army, as a possible threat to her neighbors, and the German general staff would not be revived.

Further, the United States, Britain and many West Europeans felt any defense against Russian attack would be weak unless West German manpower was included on the side of the West.

The United States and Britain repeatedly have pressed the French to ratify the EDC agreement. Because of the mixed feeling in their Parliament, French leaders backed away from a test.

Then a new French premier, Pierre Mendes-France, came on the scene — a man of force, decision and action. He negotiated a truce in the Indochina war. He offered home rule to the Tunisians.

And he promised to lay the question of ratifying EDC before the French Parliament this month. Since the mood of Parliament was not good, he and his staff sought a solution that might be acceptable there.

HIS SOLUTION, according to reports from Europe, would require the other five EDC countries to agree to some changes in the treaty. Those changes are described as so far-reaching that — while they might be acceptable to the French Parliament — they might also wreck any hope for a real EDC.

In short, although the French agreed to all the details of the EDC treaty back in 1952, they now want to change it. For that reason Mendes-France arranged to talk with the foreign ministers of the other five EDC countries at Brussels today.

Those countries, plus the United States and Britain, have taken a chilly view of Mendes-France's ideas as reported. A shrewd man, he may deliberately be sounding tough to get a compromise.

de Gasperi

De Gasperi had stepped down from the titular leadership of his pro - Western, middle-of-the-road Christian Democrat party—Italy's largest—a little more than a month ago.

Protege Heads Government

He ended his 7½ years as head of the Italian government a year ago, in July 1953, after losing a confidence vote in the Italian Parliament. But his party supplied succeeding cabinets and a protege of De Gasperi, former Interior Minister Mario Scelba, now holds the premiership.

A messenger brought the news of the death before dawn to Scelba and the Premier hurried from his own vacation spot, Fiuggi, to the scene of the death of his old mentor.

Known in the troublesome early days of the Italian republic as the master of political compromise, De Gasperi changed later to become a two-fisted foe of the growing menace of communism.

Headed Biggest Party

The tall, hawk-faced leader first because he was leader of Italy's biggest party. A noted anti-Fascist imprisoned often by Mussolini, he had served since the previous April as foreign minister.

In his first two years as premier he tried to work with his nation's Communists and fellow-traveling Socialists, but in the spring of 1947 abandoned the effort and in the 1948 elections inflicted a smashing defeat on the Reds.

For five years after that he fought the Reds at every turn, battling to keep his nation closely allied with the United States and the anti-Communist West, pushing the cause of European unity.

In 1949 he brought Italy into the North Atlantic alliance against Communist aggression as a charter member.

The Schuman coal-steel plan, the Council of Europe and the six-nation European army all received his enthusiastic support.

Honoring his pioneer work, the Coal-Steel Assembly last May elected him its president. Ironically, he died only a few hours before the foreign ministers of Italy and the five other nations of the projected European Defense Community gathered in Brussels at a meeting which may mean the death of the long-cherished international army plan.

Ollie Neimeyer Gives Address For Lions Club

Ollie Neimeyer, who retired as state game warden recently after about 40 years service, was guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Marion Lions Club.

Illustrating his talk with movies, Neimeyer explained what different animals do to crops and spoke about wild life in the county. Program chairman was Robert Bush.

A special guest at the meeting was the Marion Lions Club Soap Box Derby winner, Bobby Whitman of LaRue, who had attended the derby at Akron on Sunday. Dr. Wesley Ranck and Col. John Phelan gave reports on the Akron derby.

Other guests were: Randy Gallatin, son of Walter Gallatin, Major Fred Jones of the Marion Engineer Depot, Jess Cunningham of Rising Sun, and Don Slanker of Dayton.

Adrian Busick, vice president and chief engineer at the Marion Power Shovel Co. will be guest speaker at next Monday's meeting.

President Eisenhower would sign any bill Congress might pass which was aimed at the Communist party.

There has been speculation President Eisenhower might veto a bill such as the Senate passed Tuesday with language making party membership a crime.

A senator familiar with what went on at a series of huddles late last night said he understood the changes to be recommended would involve a series of 14 points of "evidence" which juries would have to consider in any charge against a person for alleged membership in the Communist party. That language was written by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn).

Another senator, who also declined to be quoted by name, said he understood the Justice Department wanted language to prevent possible interference with antisubversive prosecutions now under way.

The Senate version of the bill would strip the Communist party of all legal rights, such as the right to be listed on a voting ballot. It would make membership in the party punishable by five years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

NAMED UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE. Herbert Hoover Jr. poses at his State Department desk in Washington after he was nominated by President Eisenhower to be undersecretary of state, succeeding Walter Bedell Smith. The son of the former President has been serving as a special adviser to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. Smith resigned the post.

nearly all of this legislation and in its enforcement has been evidence of the strong reform instincts of America. It comes in large part out of our religious and missionary background."

The day's program of the assembly featured President Eisenhower.

A crowd of 15,000 was expected to hear him.

Notes American Qualities

Taft, who lives in Cincinnati and is a delegate to the assembly, mentioned in a prepared address American qualities of "risk-taking, ingenuity, the urge to work."

This nation's "business culture," he said, is "the setting for our religious life."

"We work under pressure of competition and fight the natural impulse to make things easier by dividing markets and fixing prices —that is, cartelization," he said.

Dr. C. L. Patijn, director of international organizations in the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs, opened discussions about a "responsible society" last night.

He recalled that the first assembly of the council in 1948 at Amsterdam produced a report that was critical of both communism and laissez-faire (free of government interference) capitalism.

Reference to Socialism

Speaking of points that have come up in consideration of a report to be made at the current gathering, he said:

"There is more interest in the problems of production and efficiency than before. At the same time it is more generally accepted that the state has an important part to play in economic life, although the extent of state intervention is still a controversial point.

"Since there is also a better understanding of the significance of private initiative and the dangers of centralization and rigidity in the economic system, it seems as although the extent of state intersocialism and capitalism is beginning to lose its sting."

McCarthy

Stevens and Adams of using blackmail tactics in an effort to halt McCarthy's search for Reds in the Army.

Watkins, declaring he still hopes to get his censure inquiry under way Aug. 30, told a news conference yesterday he would not want to do so at the expense of overburdening the committee's 70-year-old special counsel, E. Wallace Chadwick, who had just arrived in Washington. Watkins mentioned the possibility of a postponement.

Chadwick himself said he can meet any deadline the committee sets. He waded right into his first official assignment — an analysis of 46 charges three fellow senators have levelled at McCarthy in support of the proposal to censure him for conduct allegedly unbecoming a senator. The charges, by Senators Flanders (R-Vt), Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore), range from accusations concerning McCarthy's finances to allegations that he ridiculed senators and other public officials.

Watkins said he wants Chadwick and some research assistants, not all of them as yet appointed, to write an analysis of the 46 charges to permit a swift and orderly hearing.

MODERN IMPROVEMENT

VERONA, Wis. — (UP) — The streets here are going to have official names at last as the town father bow to progress. Until now the streets have been identified only by the names of old families linked with them.

AFL Atomic Workers Take Hike of 6 Cents

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—By voting to accept a previously rejected 6-cent hourly wage increase, AFL atomic production workers put the squeeze on disturbed CIO union leaders who said today the AFL vote would not block their demands for a 15-cent boost.

The AFL workers put teeth into their leaders' recommendations by voting about 2-1 in secret ballot yesterday to accept the 6-cent wage hike suggestion handed down June 15 by the President's atomic energy labor relations panel.

Disappointed CIO Local President Emerson Pownall said today, "We thought that they would back us up. We wanted their support but they're not going to stop us."

And he added: "We think we'll win out in the end."

Always in the past, Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co. has granted identical increase to the CIO and AFL at bargaining time. The company operates all four atomic plants involved here and at Paducah, Ky., for the Atomic Energy Commission. A wage increase won't cost Carbide anything for, under the cost-plus contract, the firm will pass along the increase to the government.

EDC

The ministers were disturbed this morning by traffic noises floating up from the street into the big banquet room of the Belgian Foreign Ministry. This afternoon's talks were ordered shifted to Spaak's office.

The five diplomatic leaders — of West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, Italy and Luxembourg -- were reported solidly opposed to most of the revisions in the army treaty demanded by Mendes-France as necessary to win the French National Assembly's ratification of the pact.

Allied Unity at Stake

At stake was the key Allied program for the six-nation European Defense Community, aimed at rearming the Germans while still avoiding a revival of German militarism. At the same time, EDC is designed to advance the West's dream of an integrated Europe.

The parliaments of West Germany, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg already have ratified the EDC treaty. The governments of these nations say they cannot accept any changes which would require further approval by their parliaments — at least not before France has given its okay to the original treaty.

But Mendes-France is known to feel that his Parliament will not accept the EDC treaty in its present form.

Italy has not yet ratified the pact, but in advance of the Brussels meeting expressed opposition to the French revisions.

U. S., British Interested

The United States and Britain, while not represented at the two-day parley, are deeply interested in the outcome. They also are firmly opposed to any changes which would compromise the original purpose of the treaty and further delay German rearmament.

The conference opened just after 11 a.m. in the gold and green banquet hall of the Belgian Foreign Ministry. Sitting around the U-shaped table, which was covered by the usual green billiard-table cloth, were Mendes-France, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Luxembourg's Premier Joseph Bech, Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Attilio Piccioni of Italy and J. W. Beyen of the Netherlands.

The conference is scheduled to last two days.

Sources close to the French delegation insisted Mendes-France was not presenting any take-it-or-leave-it proposition. But he was expected to tell the other ministers there can be no EDC without his amendments, or most of them.

In their negotiations here, the other five ministers were expected to strain to find ways of accepting at least portions of the French proposals. But they were believed certain to present a solid front of opposition to any modification which might call for immediate new aproval by their respective parliaments.

French legal experts contend the suggested alterations would not require parliamentary approval. The other countries flatly disagree.

The Dutch government in expressing deep concern said the French proposals "scoop the supranationality" out of the treaty.

Adenauer said the changes "affect the very foundations" of the act.

Skunk Loses

LEBANON, N.Y.—(UP) — More and more motorists halted their vehicles on Route 4 near the Enfield-Lebanon boundary to watch as a skunk, its head caught in a glass jar, crossed and recrossed the highway.

None of the audience got too close. Three intrepid highway department workers failed in attempts to get close enough to break the jar.

After almost an hour had passed and traffic was getting hopelessly tied up, Police Chief Francis LaBounty of Enfield reluctantly shot the skunk.

And did traffic at the spot move briskly for hours afterward!

Vacation Preparations Made

Denver Ready for Ike, Memo Reveals

Memo: To President Eisenhower
Subject: Colorado Vacation
From: The Associated Press, Denver
Date: August 19, 1954

Denver and Colorado are all set for your arrival at the summer White House. Your advance staff is completing the administration arrangements at your office at Lowry Air Base, the Secret Service is setting up its elaborate guards, there's not a cigarette butt in sight on the post grounds, and the fish are jumpin'.

Aksel Nielsen, the genial host of Byers Peak Ranch at Fraser, says the trouting is good in St. Louis Creek. The water was low early in the season because Aksel had to irrigate the hay crop for his fat cattle, but the situation is ideal now.

Bal Swan reports the South Platte at his place near Buffalo Creek, where you've been fishing for 20 years, is tops now. But you'd better hurry because a newspaperman warming up the river for you pulled seven trout out of that hole under the bridge not long ago.

Both Bal and Aksel will try to be patient while you finish up official business after you get here, but they're drooling for some fish they expect you to catch and fry for them over a camp fire on the river bank.

Rip Arnold, golf pro at Cherry Hills Country Club, reports the course is in very good shape now. It was a little dry earlier in the year, but the new irrigating system has fixed it up great.

The Rev. Robert S. Lutz, minister at the Corona Presbyterian church you attend out here, apologizes for the construction that's going on. However, services are going on as usual and the congregation is looking forward to having you join them again.

Over at 750 Lafayette St., your mother-in-law Mrs. John Doud, has been scurrying around getting everything ready for your visit. The neighbors report they'll be happy to have you come home again for a vacation.

They said, by the way, they don't think the Secret Service men are a nuisance at all. Mrs. Alvin J. Schrepferman, your neighbor, said "they do their job without bothering anybody."

As another of your summer neighbors put it, they want you and Mrs. Eisenhower to feel at home.

That's about the situation, Nielsen, Gov. Dan Thornton, Mrs. Doud and the Lowry commander, Brig. Gen. John T. Sprague, will be on hand to meet you. Everybody hopes Congress gets through so you can get out here by Saturday.

And they're all prepared to let you have the kind of vacation you want — fishing, golfing or just plain relaxing.

Ike's Decision

By George Sokolsky

The schism within the Republican party is not a family quarrel. To understand it at all, it must be recognized that from 1932 to 1952, a large number of men and women, often at great personal sacrifice, did the chores of keeping an unpopular party together During that 20-year period, numerous Republicans passed over to the New Deal, some, such as Henry Wallace, Harold Ickes, Frank Knox and Henry Stimson, taking office in Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet

SOKOLSKY

There was hope in 1940 among Republicans that they might carry the country on the Third Term issue. Party workers hoped that the candidate would be either Robert A. Taft or Thomas E. Dewey, they were elbowed out by an effective public relations campaign organized by a group in the National Association of Manufacturers who projected Wendell Willkie, a Democrat, a former county committeeman in Tammany Hall.

(It has often been denied that the National Association of Manufacturers had anything to do with this Such a denial is correct only in the sense that no direct formal action was taken and none was necessary. I was then associated with the NAM and speak of my own knowledge that the first projection of Willkie was from this NAM group.)

MOST ORGANIZATION Republicans resented Willkie and enough of them stayed away from the polls on election day. Willkie's subsequent close relations with Roosevelt and with New Deal and even Left Wing groups further alienated him from organization Republicans. "Freedom House" in New York rather than the Republican praty is symbolic of Willkie's short career in politics.

The Republican party was largely held together by the conservative element which followed the leadership of Robert A. Taft and the guidance of Herbert Hoover. However, it must be noted that the other important leader of this party was Thomas E. Dewey, governor of New York but who also gathered about him those elements in the party who were opposed to what they called, "isolationism."

In the 1952 Republic Convention, it can be said that there were two distinct political parties meeting under one roof, each claiming control of the Republican party. One was led by Robert A. Taft; the other by Thomas E. Dewey. The wounds of that convention have never healed, although Taft, in his last months, ministered to them.

LORD JOSIAH STAMP, the British economist, once made this important point:

"We have seen country after country making a mess of democratic forms, either getting so many parties representing every shade of opinion in the law-making machine that there have been delay and deadlock in government, or else consolidating into two parties so that the majority of voters find their own views blotted out by large masses of compromise, indistinguishable details in highest common factors that certainly get things done, but give no shade of opinion an outlet."

For want of a better designation, those who regard themselves as Taft Republicans now feel that their "shade of opinion," traditional in their party, is being blotted out. They find that two elements prevail in their party:

1. The present Dewey group whom they have resisted for 10 years, more or less;

2. New Dealers, political opportunists, A.D.A. Republicans, CIO Republicans, Eisenhower personal friends, the so-called internationalists who worked with Roosevelt, Truman, Marshall, Acheson and against whom the Republicans waged the 1952 campaign.

FOR A WHILE in 1953, particularly when Taft was alive, both sides fought for Eisenhower's ear and friendship. In those days there was no opposition to Eisenhower.

It can be said that the feeling among Taft Republicans is that the A.D.A. is gaining control of both parties and that such a figure as Paul Hoffman, to mention one name, is the transmission belt for that purpose. This, for instance, is the attitude that large numbers of Republicans in New Jersey are taking toward the senatorial candidacy of Clifford Case.

From the standpoint of realistic politics, the President will have to purge the Republican party of the conservative elements or he will have to find a selfish formula for placating some of them.

It is too late to do much about it for the 1954 campaign, but should the conservative Republicans gain strength in the Senate or should the Democrats gain either house in the next election, only a change of attitude in the White House can save this party from disintegration.

'Middlemen' Target of Farm Program Critic

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Polk (D-Ohio) says businessmen who "benefit most from low farm prices" are chiefly responsible for the Eisenhower Administration's new farm program.

"It is the manufacturers, processors, packers and distributors of farm commodities" who were the "principal advisers" in bringing about the new flexible supports, he contends. Polk is a member of the House Agriculture Committee.

In a House speech yesterday, Polk noted the House Agriculture Committee recently found consumers are not benefiting from falling farm commodity prices.

The ones gaining, he continued, are "middlemen" who have been represented on 50 agricultural advisory committees set up by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

"I fear they are the persons who have forced Secretary Benson to repudiate President Eisenhower's promise" to support 90 per cent parity and possibly 100 per cent.

The Administration's program, passed by Congress, provides for flexible price supports, ranging from 82½ to 90 per cent of parity.

In his speech, Polk listed in detail the names of individuals he said were on advisory committees.

Industry, he said, generally represents the majority on these committees. Among those represented, he included the American Meat Institute, General Mills, Inc., Safeway Stores, Inc., Fairmont Foods Co., Armour and Co. and The American Bankers Assn

After reading a long list of names, Polk commented: "To a farmer like me this reads like the Who's Who in American Agricultural, Manufacturing, Processing, Packing and Financing."

Leftward Trend

By Victor Riesel

LISBON

The long-sabred national guardsmen are in the street. A gunboat rolls in the harbor. Overhead, planes of Portugal's air force swoop and roll in practice runs. Propaganda posters everywhere hoot at India's Premier Neru. And strong man Premier Salazar, in the old stone fort below riotously colored Estoril, his summer residence, ponders what we all face — the leftward sweep of the world.

RIESEL

Dr. Salazar, this nation's ruler for 22 years, is trying to stave off the left in his way. We, of the democracies, must meet it in the manner of free men.

One thing is certain here at the end of a long trip through all the great European capitals: Europe, as well as the Far East, including India, is going left and, therefore, anti-U.S at a swift pace.

Where labor is not Communist dominated, it is Socialist dominated, or soon to be controlled by a Socialist-Leftist "Popular Front" coalition.

The great forces behind this drive to the left are the European labor movements and the parties they pay for and control.

Let's take an accounting:

The British Trade Union "Congress," counterpart of our labor federations, has almost 10 million members on the small British Isle It is the largest and most powerful organization there outside of the Church and the State.

IT IS OVERWHELMINGLY anti-Communist, but completely Socialist. It is growing more and more anti-U.S. It still controls British Socialism, which is what the British Labor party basically is. And there is a danger that the British Labor party may go pro-Russian in a few years.

Only the other day, the political correspondent of the authoritative London Observer wrote that the avowed pro-Soviet and anti-U.S. Aneurin Bevan could take power in the British Labor party if two or three important unions swing to him. Bevan needs the engineering union and the British miners. A switch to him by the engineers "is a fair bet," said the Observer's man.

On leaving for China recently Bevan blasted the U.S. for trying to "isolate" the Chinese "revolution"

But regardless of which side controls the British Labor party — political front for the Trade Union Congress — it is trying desperately for a tie with the Chinese Communists and therefore is giving moral strength, and more than subtle approval to expanding leftism.

In other words political British labor finds a fraternity in the Socialization of parts of the world.

Now there is the impression in informed continental circles that the British Socialists are pouring money into France and Italy to bolster the Socialist movements there.

IN FRANCE the talk is that there might soon be a working Communist-Socialist political alliance Whether this happens or not, the Communists control the dominant labor federation — CGT —with some 4,500,000 workers.

The French Socialists have over a million in their own federation. And 26 out of every 100 French voters marked their tallies for the Communist party in the last big election.

Add the Socialist vote to that and the industrial strength of both labor federations, and you get the power of the left, much of which is anti-U.S right now.

In Italy, the Communist labor federation has over 3 million members while the largest anti-Communist labor outfit has a million and the outright Socialist labor bloc has a few hundred thousand.

The non-Communist labor blocs, despite the fact that they are pro-U.S, are nevertheless Socialist and the moment the Soviets appear to recede as a "threat," our friends will begin to show their basic distaste for American "capitalism."

In Germany, the completely anti-Communist labor federation — DGB — is 6 millions strong and preponderantly anti-Soviet, but almost just as thoroughly Socialist The non-Socialist elements in that labor federation take a kicking around.

THE GERMAN unions pour millions of marks into the German Socialist party (the Social Democrats) in the hope of electing a Socialist government. This Social Democratic party is strong and may yet take power. The simple truth is that at the Social Democrat's national congress in Berlin on July 20, its leaders made some very definite anti-U.S. noises.

Of course, the United States is not above criticism. But when that criticism is based on the Socialists' antipathy for capitalism, as well as Communism, it seems to me the time has come to say to these labor federations abroad and to their intellectual and cultural friends in the U.S.:

What side are you on? Stand up and be counted! We know our system is not perfect, but we don't want it wiped out! Bluntly, we want a capitalist world — not a Socialist world, even if it is anti-Soviet. You may be nice people. But we're beginning to differ on some very basic philosophy!

Breakaway Door Didn't Break, Red Skelton Laid Low

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A breakaway door that didn't break laid comedian Red Skelton low yesterday during a rehearsal for his CBS television show half an hour before the program was due to go on the air for the Eastern audience, the network reported.

Skelton suffered a brain concussion and a severe neck sprain. According to the script he was to walk through the stage prop door yesterday, carrying on his head a chunk of balsa wood painted to resemble a block of concrete.

The breakaway door, supposed to shatter when he banged into it, didn't.

He was replaced on the show by Johnny Carson.

Rhode Island's State Prison Shows Profit

CRANSTON, R. I. (AP)—A Rhode Island industry that pays very little but knows no unemployment problem chalked up a tidy profit last year.

It's the state prison, where registration plates, street names, traffic signs, brushes and brooms are turned out

The annual report issued yesterday showed the prison shops had a net operating profit of $28,532 last year.

Summers were hot down on the farm, and grandmaw worked hard, but at least she didn't have to hitch up the buggy and drive her daughters 10 miles twice a week to take their baton-twirling lessons.

Pharaohs' Curse

By Relmin Morin

(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK

Remember the famous story of "the curse ofthe Pharaohs?"

It came from the dim recesses of the tomb of Tutankhamen, a king who ruled Egypt and died at an early age about 3000 years ago The tomb was discovered and opened in 1922. There the archaeologists came upon a staggering profusion of gold and jewelry, furniture, chariots, household articles, and the mummy of the young sovereign, encased in nearly a ton of solid gold.

They also noted a warning engraved on the wall—"Cursed be he who touches me"

Such messages were not unusual in the royal tombs. They probably were put there to frighten away graverobbers If so, they failed, for virtually every tomb—royal, noble or common—was rifled thousands of years before the modern Egyptologist ever began probing into the tombs.

HOWEVER, LESS THAN A year after the opening of Tutankhamen's tomb, the man who financed the expedition, Lord Carnarvon, died suddenly. The cause of death—curious combination!—was recorded as pneumonia and the effects of a mosquito bite.

This started the story of "the curse of the Pharaohs."

It merely amuses the professional Egyptologist. He reminds you that the other members of the Carnarvon expedition lived to a ripe old age and died quietly in bed. And also, that thousands of people have been "exposed" to the dire warnings, engraved on the walls of the tombs

Yet, a strange and tragic misfortune has overtaken one of the scientists connected with the discovery of the "solar boat," found a few months ago beside the Grand Pyramid of Cheops.

His two daughters died suddenly, within a few months of each other, while the work was in progress

ZAKY NOUR IS KEEPER of antiquities for the region where the boat has been found He was one of the directors of the excavation of it. In Cairo a few weeks ago, he told me this story

"Leila, the oldest girl, went to nine years old and apparently in good health During the afternoon, she suddenly developed a nosebleed. They couldn't stop the flow. She died before sundown."

Doctors diagnosed it as a heart attack, he said.

Three months later, his younger daughter, Wafaa collapsed and fell dead at play. She was six. Zaky Nour said the cause of her death is not known.

She died the day before the opening of the chamber holding the "solar boat."

He said, "as a scientist, of course, I can't believe this is anything but a coincidence But there are many things we don't know."

New Plan Would Bring Turnpike Nearer Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A plan to bring the proposed north - south turnpike closer to Columbus was announced yesterday by city and Franklin County officials.

They said they will present the plan to State Highway Director S. O. Linzell. The group includes Columbus Chamber of Commerce officials, County Engineer Guy Elbin and City Engineer Robert F. Werner.

They suggested the turnpike should run south of U.S. 40 from West Jefferson to Summerford in Madison County instead of north. Their proposal would add approximately three miles to the 295-mile route and a mile to the 115-mile Toledo spur.

COLUMBUS DOCTOR HELD

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Currency totaling $37,515 was found scattered throughout the home of a doctor arrested Tuesday on an abortion charge, federal agents reported yesterday. They said the money was found in the home of Dr. William Henry Roche, 55, who pleaded innocent yesterday to performing an abortion on a 21-year-old woman. Bond was set at $5,000 as he was held to the grand jury. Internal Revenue agents said they impounded $25,000 of the sum, estimating that amount due in back taxes, interest and penalties.

With the air - conditioner going and the television shows presenting reruns of their January programs the home needs a calendar prominently displayed to prove that it's really June.

Treat Your Family to Souffle Dessert

Fresh Peach Sauce Will Adorn Tempting Dish For Summer Meal

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

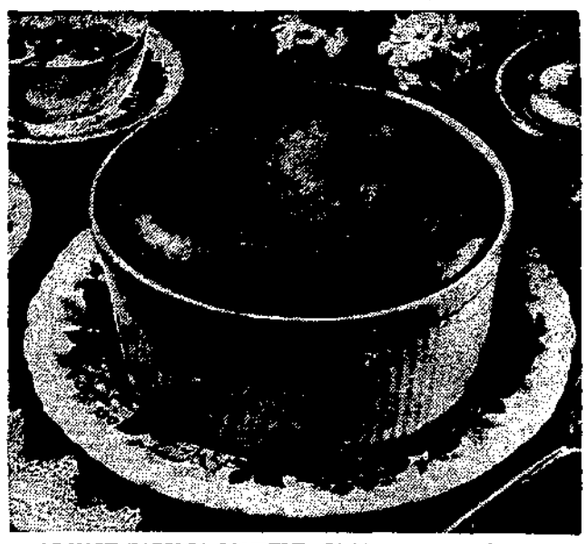
Souffles are busting out all over. Long a staple of French culinary art, Americans seem to be going for these light-as-a-summer-breeze desserts. There is even a cookbook devoted entirely to souffles scheduled for publication.

Irma Rombauer, author of the beloved "The Joy of Cooking," says that the souffle is the "misunderstood woman" of the culinary world! Although it has a reputation of being hard to master, actually a souffle is a simple and useful everyday dish.

In souffle making, we have found that the size of the baking dish is of utmost importance. Put a souffle in a casserole that is too large for the recipe, and no matter how carefully you have combined the ingredients, it will never rise to any great heights.

You also have to pay attention to the eggs in your souffle. You may separate the yolks from the whites when you take the eggs from the refrigerator, because they separate best when they are cold. It won't hurt to let the separated yolks and whites stand at room temperature, because whites beat up well when they are not too cold. But never, never beat those egg whites until just before you are ready to combine them with your other ingredients.

The recipe we are giving you, using quick-cooking tapioca instead of flour, is for an American-type souffle. Adding the tapioca is no trouble at all: you simply combine it with part of the liquid called for in the recipe and bring to a boil. Then the rest of the liquid, flavoring, butter and beaten yolks are added. Finally the beaten whites go in. In about an hour your souffle will be delicate but firm from its oven baking, ready to serve.



ORANGE TAPIOCA SOUFFLE. Light as a summer breeze.

Offer this Orange Tapioca Souffle with slices fresh peaches. Or if you do not mind using tapioca both in the souffle and the adornment, you might like to serve the souffle with the following Fresh Peach Sauce. (The sauce, by the way, is excellent on squares of fluffy white cake or slices of hearty cottage pudding.) To further gild the lily, top souffle, sliced peaches or Peach Sauce, with whipped cream.

ORANGE TAPIOCA SOUFFLE

Ingredients: 1-3 cup quick-cooking tapioca, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1 cup strained orange juice, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 eggs (separated).

Method: Put tapioca, sugar, salt and water in saucepan. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil. Stir in orange rind and juice; remove from heat and stir in butter. Allow to cool slightly while beating eggs. Beat egg yolks with (hand or electric) until thick and ivory colored. Add tapioca mixture to egg yolks and mix well. With clean beater, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold tapioca mixture into egg whites. Turn into buttered 2-quart baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 50 to 60 minutes or until souffle looks firm. Serve at once with sliced peaches or Fresh Peach Sauce; top with whipped cream if desired. Makes 6 servings.

FRESH PEACH SAUCE

Ingredients: 2 cups sliced fresh peaches, ¾ cup sugar, 1½ tablespoons quick - cooking tapioca, 1½ cups water, salt, 1½ tablespoons lemon juice.

Method: Mix peaches and sugar together in saucepan; let stand 15 minutes. Add tapioca, water and dash of salt. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil. Stir in lemon juice; remove from heat. Cool 15 minutes, then stir. Serve warm.

Galion School Officials Expect Enrollment of 2,610 Students

GALION—Some 2,400 pupils in the Galion public schools and 210 in St. Joseph's parochial are expected to answer the school bells in Galion when they ring for the first time in the new 1954-55 school year. Public schools will open Sept. 7 and the parochial school is scheduled to begin Sept. 8.

In the Galion public schools will be a new superintendent of schools and 10 new teachers among the 80 on the staff. St. Joseph's school will have two new teachers.

The 80 teachers of the public schools include principals and special teachers. With the exception of a librarian and an art teacher, all teaching positions have been filled.

Galion has four elementary schools in addition to junior and senior high schools. The West Elementary and Junior High are housed in one building, while the other schools are three modern elementary buildings, North, South and East, besides Senior High school, oldest construction.

Expect 420 at School

Senior High School is expected to have an enrollment of about 420 students, according to the number enrolled in classes at the close of school in the spring.

Assignments of teachers are pending the arrival of the new superintendent, Dwight L. Musselman, who comes to Galion from Geneva. He was employed by the Galion Board of Education, last week.

New faces in the school faculty will be three in the senior high school: Barbara Yambert of Tiffin, a 1954 graduate of Heidelberg University; Miss Barbara Dickerson of Marion, 1954 graduate of Wittenberg College, Springfield, and Lawrence Daly of Marion, graduate of Bowling Green State University.

New Elementary Teachers

Elementary teachers, new this year, are: Miss Leontine Oatman of Mount Gilead, with training at Wittenberg College and teaching experience; Martha Revis, wife of John Revis of Galion, a new resident from Cincinnati, and graduate of the University of Cincinnati; and Mrs. Edna Newell of Galion, who moved here this summer from Carey where she had teaching experience. She has had training at Ohio Northern University. Mrs. Erma Rimmel, wife of Marion H. Rimmel of Galion, new resident from Denver, Colo., with training at Indiana State Teachers College and the University of Colorado, is a new elementary teacher.

Other new elementary teachers are: Mrs. Evelyn Hildebrand, wife of Leland C. Hildebrand of Galion, with training at Ashland College; Mrs. Lillian Hurlow of Galion, who has had training at Ohio University; and Lawrence Schreck, a Galion boy, who was graduated from Ashland College and comes to Galion from a teaching-principalship at Hartland School, Collins, O.

Sister Mary Lisetta, principal of St. Joseph's School, said today that the school will have two new teachers, Sister Mary Adelitha of Basancon, Ind., and Miss Mary Louise Meeh of Milwaukee, Wis. From last year, Sister Mary Theonia is returning with the principal. The school has eight grades. Assignment of teachers has not yet been made.

Philadelphia in Dire Need of Transportation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James Jenkins was in dire need of transportation to get home yesterday.

First, according to the police report, he tried to engineer an empty subway train from its overnight terminal. Then he was arrested behind the wheel of a delivery truck he had commandeered when he couldn't start the train.

When he was unable to explain his possession of the starting tools or the train and a detachable motorman's seat, arresting officers charged him with burglary and larceny.

Baker Shoe Store Opens For Business Tomorrow

Marion's newest shoe store for women, Baker's, will open Friday morning at 238 W. Center St. in the new shopping center.

Walter R. James, who will manage the local store, was transferred from the Cincinnati store. He has been with the company eight years, having held executive positions at Dayton, Louisville, Ky., Memphis, Tenn., and Columbus.

The store features air conditioning, fluorescent lighting and illuminated wall display cases. The exterior, designed in mottled ivory terra cotta, leads to a terrazzo-floored lobby of a red and white marble blend.

Golden chartreuse interior walls are contrasted by the marbleized rust color canopy wall over the handbag and hosiery counter. Natural bentwood chair of red and olive green plastic upholstery are combined with blond oak cocktail display tables. Carpeting in rust with beige and chartreuse motif completes the inside scheme.

The rear entrance, which leads to the parking area, creates a casual patio effect, and an open white brick wall features a redwood-trimmed display case set off by garden greenery. Placed on a flagstone entrance is a waiting bench and additional plantings.

Ohio Granges Give $50,000 to Polio Program

MAGNETIC SPRINGS — Nearly $50,000 has been donated by granges throughout Ohio for the establishment of Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation here, State Grange Master Byron Frederick, Columbus, said.

Frederick said the financial support by Ohio granges has helped make possible the purchase of the Park Hotel in Magnetic Springs as the site of the midwest's first polic clinic and rehabilitation center. The trustees of the foundation took title to the property a few weeks ago and plan to let remodeling contracts later this month.

It is hoped that the new polio center's first patients can be received later this fall. About 130 patients at a time will benefit from the polio rehabilitation program similar to the one at Warm Springs, Ga.

A general state-wide campaign for $250,000 to establish and maintain the foundation is now in progress. Individual contributions can be sent to K. D. Kyle, fund drive treasurer, Richwood.

Several sizeable contributions such as $1,234.33 from the Logan County granges and $2,600 from the Delaware County granges were included in the $50,000 already donated.

Postman Held After Dumping Mail in Ocean

NEW YORK (AP) — A letter carrier faces charges of destroying mail — by swimming out and dumping it in the Atlantic Ocean.

Authorities said Joseph J. Michalozic, 31, admitted yesterday he put the mail in a shoebox and swam out about a mile off Gilgo Beach to dump it.

A lifeguard at Lido Beach, some miles down the Long Island shore, found the box with the letters still inside and turned it over to postal authorities.

Then postal inspectors traced a shoe company label on the box to Michalozic, through post office records showing he had received a package from the company recently. Michalozic, of Hempstead, N. Y., is a summer substitute postman.

He was quoted as saying his wife's suicide after childbirth and pain from a war injury had combined to make him too "lazy" to deliver the mail.

Final Tally Shows $185, Cash Register Missing

A final tally of the amount of money and property taken during a break-in of the Tecumseh Steel Products, Universal Cooler Division plant Tuesday night showed that $185 in cash and a cash register valued at $300 were missing.

The break-in was discovered Tuesday morning. Entrance had been gained by scaling a fence in the northeast corner of the grounds, prying off a kitchen window screen and entering the cafeteria. Police are still investigating.

State Board Charges Trio Conduct Practices But Hold No Licenses

BUCYRUS — The Crawford County grand jury, when it meets here Oct. 4, will consider charges of practicing medicine without a license filed against three Crawford County chiropractors by Laurence A. Dietrich of Cleveland, an examiner for the state medical board.

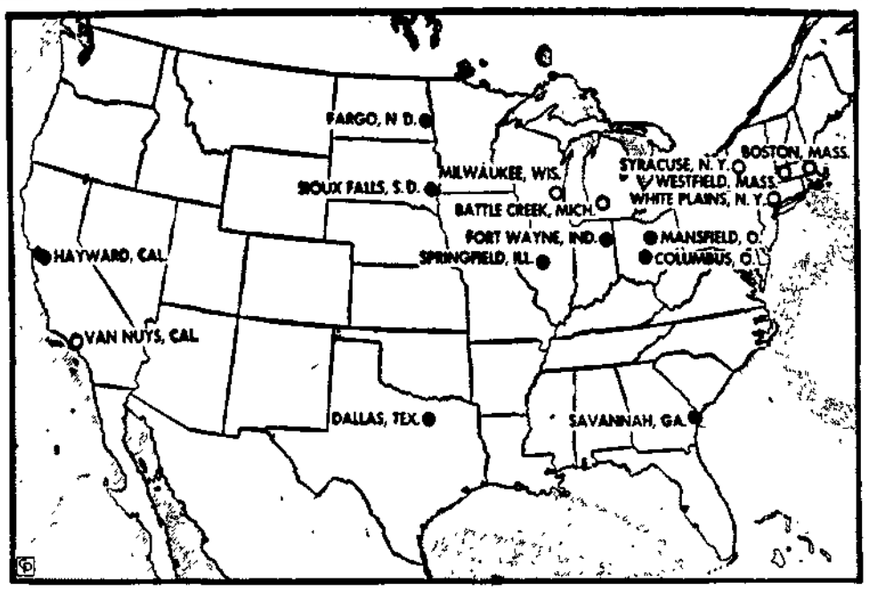
Held to the grand jury at arraignments Tuesday before Robert C. Neff, Bucyrus justice of the peace, were Drs. Stephen S. Weaver and C. E. Butler, both o. Bucyrus, and Dr. L. W. Thatcher, Galion.

Dr. Thatcher and Dr. Butler entered innocent pleas and Dr. Weaver pleaded guilty. All three were held to the grand jury and were released after furnishing bond of $50 each.

Justice of Peace Neff declined to issue a warrant against Dr. William C. Hise, a former Bucyrus chiropractor, although a complaint had been filed against him by Dietrich. Dr. Hise, a World War II veteran, retired from practice last April, charging that he was being "persecuted" by the state medical board.

Similar charges were filed last year by a state medical board representative against the four chiropractors. At that time each was fined $25 and costs at arraignments here before Justice of Peace F. H. Baerkircher.

Justice Neff declined to render final judgment in the cases because all three defendants were charged with a second offense. He said he lacked jurisdiction due to their previous convictions and held the men to the jury.



AIR GUARD HAS JETS ON ALERT AT THESE SITES. Nine fighter plane squadrons of the Air National Guard and U. S. Air Force Reserve are on a "ready alert" basis in the nine cities indicated above by black dots. Before end of the year others will be on duty in cities indicated by circles, according to a USAF announcement. The squadrons are maintaining a 14-hour daylight alert, with two jet planes, five pilots and 10 maintenance crewmen.

HELD FOR NON-SUPPORT

BUCYRUS—Donald Stuckey, 26, Bucyrus, pleaded innocent to charge of non-support of a pregnant woman at his arraignment here Tuesday before Justice of Peace Robert C. Neff and was held to the grand jury. Charges were filed by Stuckey's wife, Mrs. Louise Stuckey, Bucyrus.

Service Clubs Asked To Plug Traffic Safety

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state director of highway safety said today more people were killed in traffic accidents on Ohio highways last weekend than any other non-holiday weekend this year.

U. C. Felty, director of the Department of Highway Safety, said that while not all reports are in, 12 traffic fatalities have been recorded.

The Ohio Associated Press count of traffic fatalities from 6 p. m., Friday to midnight Sunday totaled 15.

When all reports are in, he said, the number may go up.

Felty said he is appealing to service clubs, civic organizations throughout Ohio to mobilize to make traffic safety a part of their regular programs. In addition, telegrams have been sent to chairmen of the nine districts in the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee urging them to step up traffic safety programs.

U. S. farmers produced 5,300,000,000 eggs in June, 1954.

Mel Martin Opens Richwood Evangelistic Services Sunday

Returning to Richwood this year for his second Christian Crusade, Rev. Mel Martin, former radio and television personality, will bring to Memorial Field next week his evangelistic party composed of his family, and in addition, Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Woods, also former entertainers. The special services will begin Sunday night and continue nightly at 8 o'clock through the following Sunday.

Crowds reaching approximately 1,500 were drawn by the crusade last year, and it is believed these were the largest gatherings ever assembled in the community for an evangelistic campaign. The meeting is under sponsorship of the Richwood Ministerial Association.

The son of a minister, Rev. Martin was born in Atlanta, Ga., and at the age of six appeared on the evangelistic platform to sing and make short speeches. His father was pastor of the Baptist Temple in Atlanta. Following education in theology at Chicago, Ill., he spent some time in the Department of Evangelism for the Southern Baptist Convention. Becoming associated with radio and television work about four years ago in Cincinnati, O., he won popularity as star of his own show, "Breakfast Party." More than a year ago he heard Rev. Billy Graham preach in Cincinnati and gave up his entertainment career to enter the field of evangelism again, and has conducted a number of crusades in this part of the country to date. Mr. and Mrs. Woods, at one time associated with Bob Hope, will be featured musicians for the Richwood campaign and will be heard at each of nightly services.

Senate Okays Funds for New Greenup Dam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate yesterday passed a measure that Army engineers hope will mark the start of an overhauling of the dam system in the Ohio River to facilitate heavy traffic.

The bill appropriates two million dollars to start work on the Greenup, Ky., lock and dam between now and June 30, 1954. The dam would span the Ohio River from Greenup to a point halfway between Gallipolis and Portsmouth, Ohio. The appropriation was included in moneys the Senate also approved for other projects.

Army engineers say it should be completed by 1961, assuming Congress agrees to appropriate the needed 58 million dollars.

Engineers want to replace 46 existing dams with 21 new or repaired structures in their long-range plan for the Ohio River. They said many present dams are old and considered a bottleneck to traffic.

Galion Trouble Clinic Sponsors New Speech Therapy Program

GALION — The services of a speech therapist will be secured for the people of this community, it was announced today. This service is being made available to children who have speech defects and other individuals with speech impediment trouble, through the efforts of the Galion Trouble Clinic trustees.

In this project, the trustees have had the assistance of David Wires, administrator of Galion City Hospital. He is securing the services of a speech therapist of Johnsville, O., who has volunteered to come to Galion for one or two days a week.

At a meeting Wednesday night at the Peace Lutheran parish house, 15 people registered and assured Wires that they would avail themselves of the services of the speech therapist. He is making arrangements for this service to be given in a room at City Hospital.

Parents and individuals who are able to pay, will be charged $3 a lesson. The Trouble Clinic has had assurance from other civic groups of financial assistance for those who are greatly in need of the service and are unable to pay.

When the Galion Trouble Clinic first started working on the project, a letter was sent to the Galion Board of Education asking for assistance. No action was taken by the board and the Trouble Clinic proceeded on its own to make the service possible, contacting Wires at City Hospital.

Marion E. Shank, then superintendent of schools, assisted the group by conducting a survey. Results of this showed that there were at least 43 cases. Letters were later sent out by Wires to the parents of children with speech defects and he received 12 answers and an additional 15 telephone inquiries.

Wires addressed the meeting Wednesday night. It was attended by four of the five trustees of the Galion Trouble Clinic, representatives of the East School PTA, the Senior High PTA, the American Legion Post of Galion and Margaret Garrett, city health nurse.

Wires told the group that his interests in the problem are two-fold, one from a medical standpoint, and the other from a psychological. He explained the methods of approach to the problem and the remedy that can be sought. He pointed out that the project in Galion was originated with the Galion Trouble Clinic. Wires also is a member of the Trouble Clinic.

It was emphasized at last night's meeting that there is a great need for this service in Galion, as people seeking this corrective work have had to drive to Mansfield for the service. The final decision to secure the speech therapist and set up space in City Hospital for the work was made at last night's meeting when enough people indicated that they would avail themselves of the service.

Biggest Food Chain Cuts Coffee Prices

NEW YORK (AP)—The Great Atlantic Pacific Tea Co., operator of 4,000 A&P stores across the country, has announced a 10-cent cut in retail coffee prices, effective today.

The announcement yesterday by the country's largest food chain was the first drop in coffee prices by a big nation wide distributor. Smaller firms began announcing price cuts Monday following a weekend easing of foreign exchange regulations by Brazil.

The A&P cut applies to all its coffee brands, bringing the price of Red Circle, 8 O'Clock and Bokar labels down to $1.09. The three brands have been selling at a uniform price since June.

Yesterday, for the third day in a row, the price of coffee futures on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange dropped 2 cents a pound, the maximum reduction allowed in any single day's trading.

Indians Sport 8-Game Streak After Beating Tigers

Wynn Gains 16th Victory; Smith, Avila Slam Homers

CLEVELAND (AP)—During three seasons managing Cleveland clubs that were runner-up to the New York Yankees, Al Lopez often wished "we could have one long winning streak."

This was especially true last year when one home stand string of seven victories was the Tribe's best sustained effort.

Today, going into a double header with the Detroit Tigers, the Indians are sporting an eight-game winning string for the fourth time this campaign. They had a streak of 11 triumphs that ended May 23; one of nine games to June 18 and another of eight to July 5.

Early Wynn's third shutout of the season and his 16th victory, after four tries to attain it, kept the Indians three games ahead of the Yanks yesterday. All the runs the Tribe scored in winning 4-0 were driven in by home runs—a bases-empty sixth inning blow by Bob Avila and a seventh inning swat by Al Smith after a walk and Wynn's single.

Southpaw Billy Hoeft permitted the Indians a pop double by Westlake, two singles by Wynn and the pair of homers—a total of five hits.

Wynn allowed six hits. He had two Tiger runners on the base path with none out in the first, third and ninth innings, but bore down to goose - egg the Tigers each time.

Incidentally, the base on balls Smith drew in the first inning was his 65th of the season—tops for the Tribe and one of the reasons he has been able to score 70 runs—a total exceeded only slightly by Avila and Larry Doby among the Tribe. And both Doby and Avila have played in more games.

Mike Garcia (15-5) and Bob Feller (10-2) hurl for the Tribe in a rare week-day double header today—the final appearance of the Tribe before a 19-game road trip.

Out to spill the Indians' fine double header record of 11 won, three split and only one lost will be Ned Garver (11-7) and Al Aber or Steve Gromek. Garver tagged for the Tribe with its only loss in the last 13 games—a five-hit, 4-0 setback in Detroit on Tuesday of last week.

Increase Seen In Attendance At Big Tracks

NEW YORK (AP)—Attendance at the nation's major race tracks is up in a majority of cases, and may exceed the record total turnout of 1953, figures of the Thoroughbred Racing Assn. showed today.

Incomplete figures through the end of July show a slight decline in the pari-mutuel handle, but racing officials are highly pleased at the attendance.

There are reports from 29 of the 39 member tracks of the TRA, the parent organization which makes up all the major tracks in this country. Most of these have completed their season, or have a fall session. Some are still in operation and final figures will come later.

Twenty of the 29 reporting tracks show attendance gains, while wagering is up at 16 of them.

The 1953 season was the greatest on record, as 27,969,331 fans turned out, and produced a two-billion-dollar pari-mutuel turnover for the first time. The total wagered was $2,064,572,984, with total revenue to the 25 racing states being $138,604,146.

While the betting may not approach 1953 because of various reasons, including a tighter dollar, most tracks will settle on the continued gains in the gate.

Tracks showing attendance gains include Omaha's Ak - Sar - Ben, Aqueduct, Arlington Park, Denver's Centennial, Delaware, Hollywood Park, Longacres, Monmouth, Randall, Saratoga-at-Jamaica, Churchill Downs, Atlantic City, New Orleans Fair Grounds, Garden State, Hialeah, Jamaica, Keeneland, Laurel, Lincoln Downs and Oaklawn. Jamaica was off 0.1 per cent in the mutuels, Delaware 2.1, Longacres 3.3, and Monmouth .0368 per cent.

Turner Looks To Title Fight After Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—Gil Turner, lacking his one-time speed and knockout punch, today hopes he is headed back to welterweight contention following one of the most savage fights of his career.

After campaigning unsuccessfully as a middleweight for two years, Turner tangled with durable welterweight Al Andrews last night in one of the most vicious brawls in several years at Chicago Stadium.

He weighed 153 to Andrews' 152.

Turner had Andrews staggering a half dozen times but failed to finish him off, and by the end both 23-year-old fighters were battered and groggy.

Turner won a unanimous 10-round decision.

"It was the toughest fight I've had outside of (Kid) Gavilan," Turner said afterwards. "I'd like a couple more fights like this one and then I'll be ready for another shot at the welterweight title."

Andrews' staying power and his rallies after he looked almost out on his feet must have thrilled the national television audience as well as the wildly-yelling ringside turnout of 1,910 paid plus 3,000 servicemen admitted free.

Indianapolis Wins Two From Senators

By The Associated Press

The Indianapolis Indians continued their relentless stampede to the American Association pennant last night by sweeping a doubleheader from Charleston and boosting their frontrunning position to 15 games.

Sam Jones blanked the senators on two hits for a 1-0 nightcap victory after the Indians had taken the opener 2-1 behind Glen Harshbarger, who posted his sixth victory with some help from Billy Joe Davidson.

Minneapolis slammed four homers to account for all seven runs in a 7-5, 10-inning triumph over Toledo.

Kansas City ripped three pitchers for 17 hits to trim Columbus 11-8. Louisville produced all its runs in the sixth on four straight hits to shade St. Paul 3-2.

Woman Fires at 'Dog,' Bags Mountain Lion

HUNTSVILLE, Utah (AP)—Mrs. Jack Hislop fired a single pistol shot, intending to scare away a "large dog' that was molesting some of her sheep near her bedroom window.

In the morning she said she almost fainted when she found that she had shot a nine-foot mountain lion. It had been killed with a 32-caliber bullet just under the left shoulder.

Prospect Captures County Teen League Crown

Hauff Tops Two Foes in Caddy Play

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ninth National Caddie Golf Tournament hits the pay-off spot today, with the eight winners of third round matches certain to share in the $5,000 scholarship fund.

Two rounds of boy-to-boy encounters are on today's slate, with the four survivors clashing over 36 holes tomorrow for a Saturday final berth. The ultimate victor gets a $1,500 scholarship, the runnerup $1,000, and the eighth-placer $150, with those in between capturing graduated awards.

In the previous eight tournaments, 35 boys from 26 cities and 12 states have split up $29,850 in scholarship funds and have attended 11 U.S. universities and one in Canada.

Two of last year's prize winners are still in the fight, after the starting field of 53 was slashed to 16 in yesterday's rain-swept 18-holers. John Chimienti of Harrisburg, Pa., third placer for $750 in $953, is still firing, as is Dick Burgoon, last year of Carlisle, Pa., and this year of Harrisburg, who received $200.

No entrant is permitted more than a $1,500 total over his tournament career, so a championship by either would rearrange the prize list.

The red-hot favorite is still medalist Dick Hauff, the war orphan from Iran. The youth, adopted by an Arlington Heights, Ill., Army major, was even with par for Ohio State's 7,128-yard par 72 layout yesterday for the 27 holes he needed for two victories.

Hauff routed Jimmy Dolan of Worcester, Mass., 6 and 5 with a one-over-par route, and then started bogie - eagle-par-birdie-birdie against Pete Rosko of Youngstown for a 5 and 4 verdict.

Still in the scrap are 16 youngsters, all under 18, from the District of Columbia and six states, Ohio and Pennsylvania have four each, Missouri 3, Kansas 2, and Illinois and New York one each.

President Powel Crosley Jr., has been with the Cincinnati Redlegs for 20 years.

Durocher Up to Old Tricks As 'Hunches' Down Phillies

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Leo Durocher, regrouping his faltering forces for the stretch run, is up to his old tricks again. A hunch player from way back, the New York Giant manager is playing them to the hilt—and they're paying off.

Shocked by three straight losses to the Dodgers at Ebbets Field, Durocher shook up his lineup against Philadelphia Tuesday night, putting Bobby Hofman on first, Billy Gardner on third and Ray Katt behind the plate. All Hofman did was slam two home runs and drive in four runs to spark a 8-3 victory. Gardner shone defensively and Katt contributed a double and a run-scoring fly.

Yesterday, with a right-hander pitching for the Phillies, Durocher sent Dusty Rhodes, the power-hitting pinch hitter, to left field in place of Monte Irvin. Rhodes blasted a pair of home runs and drove in five runs as the Giants won 6-2.

Rhodes got the Giants off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning, hammering Herm Wehmeier for a three-run homer. His second homer, and 12th of the season, came off southpaw Ron Mrozinski in the fifth with one man aboard.

"Every time we go bad," Durocher said, "I call upon Rhodes and Hofman. They're my minutemen. I first got the idea using them as trouble shooters last fall during our tour in Japan. They were both hitting fools on that trip. Dusty and Bobby easily were the best hitters on the club. If it weren't for them we wouldn't have won a single game in Japan."

Hofman's batting average of .238 is misleading but Rhoades is pacing the club with a .371 average. He has driven in 32 runs on 33 hits.

Warren Defeated By San Antonio in Pony World Series

WASHINGTON (AP)—San Antonio, Tex., scored its second shutout in the Pony League World Series by defeating Warren, Ohio, 6-0 last night. Monongahela, Pa., trounced Beverly Hills, Calif., 7-4.

Monongahela broke a tie in the fifth inning with four singles, which added up to as many runs on an error and a wild pitch by the Californians.

San Antonio used three pitchers to insure the shutout. They've given up only three hits in the series so far.

Earlier, Chicago defeated Waltham, Mass. 6-0, and Greensboro, N. C. overcame Camden, S. C., 5-1. All games were in the second round of play.

Tough Schedule

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan has lined up an unusually tough football schedule for its home grounds in an effort to check a steady decline in attendance.

The Wolverines this fall will meet Army, Iowa, Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan State, hoping that at least two of these games will fill the vast 97,000-plus Michigan Stadium.

Thor Slostad had to close his bowling alley for a few days in Mount Vernon, Wash. He had loaned all his 62 bowling balls to his fellow towasmen competing in a Seattle tournament.

Olson Predicts Victory In Bout With Castellani

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—This may not be "stop the press" stuff but it is news when middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson makes an outright prediction.

In a question-and-answer interview that was practically pried out of the 160-pound kingpin, he said he expected to beat the No. 1 challenger, Rocky Castellani, in their 15-round title fight tomorrow night.

"I have trained hard and I have trained for a 15-round fight," he said.

Asked if he expected to win by a knockout or a decision, he said, "I'm ready to go 15 rounds, come what may."

He has no set plan of battle.

"Im ready for any kind of fight Castellani puts up."

He was asked what kind of a fight he expected the challenger to wage.

"From what I have read in the papers I expect him to try to jab and outspeed me. If that's what he does, I'll press him all the way."

Odds makers have established Olson the 4-1 favorite.

The bout will be nationally televised (except for a San Francisco blackout within a 100-mile radius) from the San Francisco Cow Palace by NBC.

Starting time will be 10 p.m. EDT.

Most observers think the pulverizing body beatings Olson hands out will win him the fight. But Castellani followers see the former Luzerne, Pa., coalminer, now a Cleveland resident, as a winner due to his flashing speed.

Rocky's left jab is superior. He moves in and out and around the ring faster than Bobo. He probably is the harder hitter with a right hand.

Both School's Gridders Start Drilling Friday

Final preparations were being made today by coaches Pete Howison and Ray Robbins for the opening of fall football practice Friday for Harding and St. Mary candidates.

Howison was issuing equipment to Prexy gridders today and physical examinations were scheduled this morning at Harding Stadium. Most of the upper classmen returned yesterday to receive their football gear, Howison said.

Ray Robbins, St. Mary mentor, was to hand out equipment to Irish candidates today and physicals were to be given the gridders.

Practice in Marion will officially begin at 9 a.m. tomorrow. Both coaches have set up the morning sessions for 9 a.m. but the afternoon workout at Harding has been set for 3:30 by Coach Howison. St. Mary gridders will hold their afternoon practice at 5 p.m., Robbins said. The sessions, to be held twice daily until the start of school Sept. 7, will probably last about two hours.

Howison expects some 75 boys for the first session tomorrow while Robbins is counting on approximately 50 to turn out.

Howison has only three weeks in which to whip his boys into shape for the first football action of the year. The Presidents battle Lorain here Saturday, Sept. 11, in a preview game.

Otherwise, both St. Mary and Harding have their 1954 openers the following Friday. Columbus West visits Harding on Sept. 17 while St. Mary travels to Cardington.

Among those greeting Howison on opening day tomorrow will be 19 lettermen from last year's squad of 26 which pushed Harding to a 6-2-1 season.

Returnees are Don Schweinfurth and Joe Snouffer, both quarterbacks; Gary Ballinger, fullback; Chet King, Joe Albinack, and Tom Hazen, halfbacks; Bob Caldwell, Hank Rinnert and Gary Huber, centers; Fred Hazen, Gene Armstrong, Bob Stauffer and Ted Fi'stenberger, ends; Abner Thomas and Larry Sager, guards, and Larry Harper, Frank D'Eramo, Bob Prater and Dave Townsend, tackles.

Graduation stripped the squad of Doug Bibler, Fred Price and Bob Pryor, backs, and Jim Whaley, Bob Harnor, John Obenour and Larry Clinger, linemen, last June.

Only eight lettermen will be among those turning out tomorrow at St. Mary. Fourteen award winners who were instrumental in the Irish's 7-1 season last fall are gone. Lone returning lettermen are Jerry Ballenger and Dave Kratt, both guards; John Kelly and Dick Mounts, tackles; Richard Michell, end; Roger Michell and Bob McMahan, quarterbacks; and John Messenger, halfback.

Bucyrus High To Begin Fall Grid Practice

BUCYRUS — Nine lettermen will be back for the 1954 Bucyrus High School football team, which starts two-a-day practices at Lane Street athletic field Friday.

Varsity letter winners back from last year's squad, which won three of nine starts, are Ned Bibler, Ray Foreman, Ronald Flock, Fred Frey, Fred Stansberry, John Sullivan, Harold Weithman, Robert Seele and John Boorn.

Richard Frantz is returning for his second year as head coach and will have the same staff of assistants as was on hand last year. They include John Hutton, line coach; Merlin Apel, junior high coach, and Bob Wolfe, reserve coach. A turnout of about 60 candidates is anticipated by Coach Frantz, who expects to field a small starting eleven.

For the first time in many years, the team will play eight games instead of the usual nine game schedule. All five home contests are Northern Ohio League tilts. The Redmen also will participate in a preview session on Sept. 10 at Fostoria against an unnamed opponent.

The schedule includes: Sept. 17, Tiffin Columbian; Oct. 1, at Norwalk, Oct 8, Galion; Oct. 15, Willard; Oct. 22, at Upper Sandusky; Oct. 28, Shelby, Nov. 4, Bellevue; Nov. 12, at Defiance.

Tebbetts' Main Worry Comes From Pitchers

CHICAGO (AP)—Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts is visibly worried for the first time this season because of the performances of his pitchers in recent games.

Tebbetts hoped to alleviate those worries today with his selection of veteran Karl Drews and Art Fowler or Frank Smith to work a double header against the Chicago Cubs.

Their opposition will be Dave Cole and Jim Davis.

Tebbetts indicated yesterday he was also considering several changes in his batting order.

"I've been kicking some changes around my mind," Birdie said, "but I want to sleep on them first."

Tebbetts might have had nightmares Tuesday night after the Cubs limited the Reds to only 11 hits and one run in 18 innings. Heavy rains washed out yesterday's scheduled third of a four-game series.

Richwood Man Named Harness Racing Timer

Frank Foster of Marion, speed superintendent at the Ohio State Fair, has announced that Frank Riley of Richwood will be one of the timers at the state fair harness race meeting August 28-Sept. 3.

C. H. Sinkey of Centerburg and Presten Hinebaugh of Columbus are the other timers. Ned Smith of Cambridge will be presiding judge for the state fair meet while William George of Plain City and Sam Chrismer of Buckland will be associate judges and Earl Coburn, clerk of course.

Kid Gavilan Sued By Former Helper

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan and George Gainford, who once worked in his corner, have parted ways and Gainford is suing Gavilan for $150,000.

The suit has been filed in Supreme Court, with Gainford claiming his "advice and counsel" helped Gavilan win the title. He said he was signed in 1947 to advise, counsel and create bookings for Gavilan at 10 per cent of the fighter's earnings.

He said he never had been paid or given an accounting although Gavilan earned approximately 1½ million dollars.

Gavilan entered a general denial.

The final between the two squads was postponed last night because of rain. They will try again at 8 p.m. tonight.

As a result, tonight's games at Garfield Park have been postponed.

Victory Market extended the finals in the double - elimination tourney to two games when it edged Mac's, 1-0, in 14 frames Tuesday night. A Mac's win would have given it the district title and trip to the state tournament in Toledo. Mac's beat Victory earlier in the tourney 4-2.

Win Most of Others

Pennant Race Futile Except For New York, Indian Games

By BEN PHLEGER
AP Sports Writer

Maybe the American League should let Cleveland and New York go ahead and play the five games they have left with each other and forget the pennant race.

The way the Indians and Yankees are playing now they might well win all their other games anyway.

They have to use up their strength playing "crucial" series with teams mathematically eliminated from all possible chance at the title. A slipup anywhere along the line could spell the difference.

Just consider the futility of the chase. In their last 68 games — more than half of their total played to date — the second-place Yankees have gained exactly half a length on the Indians.

Here are the figures: The Yankees have won 9 in a row, 15 of their last 18, 35 of their last 43, and 52 of their last 68. But Cleveland has won 6 straight, 12 out of 13, 17 out of 20, and 51 out of 68.

Everybody with any pennant hopes left in either league won yesterday. Cleveland beat Detroit 4-0, New York defeated Philadelphia 6-1 and Chicago whipped Baltimore 4-1 in the American League. The New York Giants thumped Philadelphia 6-2, Brooklyn shaded Pittsburgh 3-2 and Milwaukee defeated St. Louis 3-1 in the National.

In the only action not involving a contender, Boston edged Washington 9-8 in 11 innings on Karl Olson's single with two out. Ted Williams went hitless in six times at bat.

Cincinnati and the Cubs were rained out at Chicago.

Cleveland managed only five hits off southpaw Billy Hoeft but two were home runs — by Bobby Avila with the bases empty for the first run and by Al Smith with two aboard for the other three. Early Wynn finally won his 16th game in his fourth try.

The Yankees mopped up on the lowly Athletics for the 13th time in 15 meetings. Whitey Ford turned in his seventh straight victory and his 13th of the season.

Chicago pitching continued to baffle the last-place Orioles, who have scored only twice in their last 27 innings. Sandy Consuegra, lifted in the sixth for a pinch hitter, registered his 15th success with fine relief from Dick Strahs and Harry Dorish. Don Larsen was charged with his 16th loss, tops in both leagues.

Another hunch paid off for Manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. He replaced the slumping Monte Irvin with Dusty Rhodes and the substitute outfielder belted two home runs that accounted for five runs. The night before, Durocher inserted Rhodes' roommate Bobby Hofman and he homered twice.

The Pirates' five-game winning streak ended as relief ace Jim Hughes of the Dodgers retired the side in the ninth after two runs had scored and two men were on base.

Lefty Warren Spahn checked the Cardinals on five hits, including Stan Musial's 32nd home run. Harvey Haddix had a one-hitter working until two out in the seventh. A pop fly triple by Joe Adcock drove in the first run and he scored a moment later on a single by Andy Pafko.

The approved claims include: Wayne Harer of near Lykens, $45 for three sheep killed. Howard Pfleiderer, Tiro, $42.50 for 17 turkeys killed, and L. F. Farm Conservation Trip Postponed Due to Storm

A tour of grass waterways, planned for Wednesday afternoon by the Marion County Soil Conservation Service, was rained out by the storm which hit the area about noon Wednesday.

W. L. Williams, soil conservationist for the county, said today the tour will be rescheduled for a later date, probably after the end of the State Fair.

The tour was planned to give farmers an idea of the way in which grass waterways are constructed, and how they operate.

Finds Wrong Wallet

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—This, police say, is how Louis Cohen landed in jail:

He found a wallet on the beach, but he didn't hunt for the owner. Instead, he used it to identify himself when, later, two policemen awakened him in a park.

The wallet happened to belong to a detective, Wayne L. Higley. Cohen was booked yesterday on suspicion of vagrancy and petty theft of found property.

TO WED MATHEWS. Miss Virjean Lauby (above), 20, of Marshfield, Wis., will wed Eddie Mathews, 22-year-old home run hero of the Milwaukee Braves in October, Eddie's mother announced in Santa Barbara, Calif.

3 Men Killed In Plane Crash Near Vandalia

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Three men burned to death yesterday trapped inside a twin-engine private plane that crashed and burned near Cox Municipal Airport here half an hour after takeoff.

Witnesses who saw the plane spin, crash and burn included the pilot's father who came to the airport with his son.

The charred bodies were identified as Pilot John Shockley, 32, of Muncie, Ind., and two radio technicians who had gone up in the plane to install radio equipment. They were Dale Hecker, 26, of Vandalia and Kenneth Lee Carroll, 23, of Rt. 1, West Milton.

Shockley's father, Clyde, is general manager of the Muncie Airport. Officials at the local airport said the father stayed after the crash to get complete details and then flew back to Muncie alone in a private plane.

Shockley was a pilot for the Ball Can Co. of Muncie which had the plane brought here to install the radio gear.

The crew on duty in the control tower said Shockley had just asked permission to land when the plane went into a spin, and plunged towards earth. The gas tank apparently exploded when it struck ground.

The plane crashed in a field about 1½ miles northeast of the airport.

FIREWORKS!

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — A state policeman came across a letter advertising fireworks. He wrote the sender, Peter Purcell of Westport, and ordered a shipment. Purcell answered, saying buyers had to come in person because such sales were illegal. Purcell added this postscript. "Please come alone — we can't have a crowd. See you soon." He did.

Aussie Davis Cup Captain Under Fire

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The news from Melbourne that the Australian Lawn Tennis Assn. has temporarily voted down a motion to censure that country's Davis Cup captain, Harry Hopman, bears out private advices that opposition to Hopman's methods has rown so strong he has little chance of holding the job beyond next winter's Challenge Round, no matter what the result.

The motion to censure the tennis martinet was made by Norman Strange, the head of Australia's telephone system and a highly influential man. He objected to some remarks made by Hopman after one of his players, Ken Rosewall, had been beaten by Jaroslav Drobny in the recent Wimbledon final. It was decided to shelve the matter until Hopman's return home from this country.

It was only by the bare margin of a 3-2 vote by the cup selectors that Hopman was permitted to captain the present Aussie team which is playing in the National Doubles Championships this week at Brookline. Since then one of his strong supporters, Harry Itt, has resigned at the age of 84, and informed opinion is that his successor, Judge E. A. Dunphy, will be found in the anti-Hopman camp the next time around.

One of the counts against Hopman, we learn, is the growing belief that he does not actually cease to be a working tennis journalist during the months he is leading the Aussie team on its annual tour across Europe and America. This, it is realized, could prove embarrassing if the tennis association of this or any other country should ever make an issue of it.

Each year, it seems, Harry formally takes a leave of absence from sports writing when the team leaves Australia, thus conforming to one of the game's oldest rules. From that point on the string of papers which normally carry the Hopman "by-line" report the day-by-day doings of the Aussie stars in Paris, London and New York under the enigmatic heading "from a special correspondent."

The only thing the anti-Hopmans don't like about that is the curious circumstance that this particular correspondent is the only one of any description who obtains daily interviews of some length not only with the team captain but with those of his players who happen to be in the news. Such is his diligence and industry that he often appears to be capable of reading Hopman's most secret thoughts.

Miami Boy, 9, Remains Under Water Too Long

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Police pulled the body of 9-year-old Jimmy Berrian from the Coconut Grove Yacht Basin yesterday but efforts by a fire department respirator unit failed to revive him.

Homicide Detective W. P. McClure said witnesses told him the boy and a playmate had been trying to see who could stay under water longer

About 45 per cent of the Japanese people are farmers.

Bucyrus Plans Beautification Of River Sites

BUCYRUS — Mayor Frank P. Sitler has been authorized by city Council to appoint a permanent committee of citizens and councilmen to work out a long range program for beautification of the Sandusky River in Bucyrus.

The committee is expected to work with Junior Chamber of Commerce members in elimination of mosquito-breeding areas in the river and the seepage of raw sewage into the river bed.

Jaycee James Stemen, a past president of the organization, told councilmen that large deposits of lime near the waterworks dam up the river and impede its flow and that there are many breaks in sewer tiles, through which sewage enters the river bed. Stemen's complaints were verified with photographs taken by Jaycee members of the existing conditions.

Last September, Jaycee representatives appeared before Council and urged that some action be taken but Stemen pointed out that the proposal was never acted upon by Council.

Jaycee spokesmen said they believe that if a long-range program is developed, the river can be changed from its current role of a source of civic embarrassment to a source of pleasure and beauty.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has spent more than $1,000 in Bucyrus this year in its anti-insect fogging campaign but organization members believe the mosquito nuisance can't be eliminated until the river situation is remedied.

Thunderstorms May Be Followed By Fair Weather

By The Associated Press

There were some rain clouds in the mid-continent and the eastern third of the country but generally fair weather was the outlook for most of the country today.

Showers and thunderstorms struck over a broad area yesterday from Arizona and New Mexico northeastward to the Great Lakes region. There also were showers in the Southeastern states and in some parts of the Appalachians. A storm moving in from the Pacific brought general rains to Washington.

Heavy thunderstorms were reported in sections of Illinois and Indiana and in west Texas. Springfield, Ill., was hit by heavy rain and strong winds with gusts up to 63 miles an hour.

Warm weather was reported over most of the southern and southwest states with readings of 100 degrees again yesterday in Arkansas, Oklahoma and in sections of adjoining states.

2 KILLED NEAR FINDLAY

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—An elderly man and woman were killed yesterday in a two-car crash about seven miles northeast of here. They were identified as Bon Hissong, 70, of nearby Benton Ridge and Mrs. Lillian Weyer, 62, of Findlay.

Sandusky Bay Fishing Good, State Reports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fishing in Ohio, such as it is at this time of year, is best right now in Sandusky Bay, says the state wildlife division. The bay is yielding big catches of yellow perch

Elsewhere in Ohio, fishing prospects are fair to poor. Streams, reports the wildlife division, generally are rolly and at normal level. Lakes generally are clear and are at normal—or slightly below normal—levels.

Conditions by districts:

LAKE ERIE — Minnows and worms are the baits fishermen are using to take large catches of relatively small perch. The island area of western Lake Erie is yielding catches of walleyes (pickerel), white bass, sheepshead and catfish. Trolling near bottom in 20 to 35 feet of water is producing walleyes Still fishing in water 12 to 25 feet deep with big minnows also is effective at night.

NORTHWESTERN—East Harbor fishing is fair. Elsewhere in the district results have been poor

NORTHEASTERN—Walleye fishing is fair at Pleasant Hill, Berlin Reservoir, Mosquito Reservoir and Portage Lakes and is getting better. Fishing in other lakes and streams has been poor.

EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHEASTERN—The only fair fishing in the area is reported at Burr Oak Seneca and Forked Run lakes. They are expected to continue fair over the weekend.

CENTRAL, SOUTHERN — All streams are rolly and weekend prospects are poor.

SOUTHWESTERN — Fair fishing is reported in lakes and streams of Brown, Butler, Champaign, Hamilton, Montgomery and Preble counties. Water conditions range from clear to rolly. Bass, bluegills and carp are being taken.

Dinosaur Constructed

EXCELSIOR, Wis — (UP) — Paul A. Herfort has finally put to use the small, round stones found in abundance in this Sauk County town and which he has been collecting for 40 years.

He has constructed a replica of a dinosaur some 300 inches high and weighing 35 pounds of the sandstone "marbles" which a Chicago expert assured him were formed by action of wind, earth and water in prehistoric times.

The dinosaur model goes to the Sauk County Historical Society.

RINGLEADERS IN PRISON YARD. Three ringleaders of the penitentiary riot at Kingston, Ont., Canada, stand quietly against fence outside hospital building as unarmed guards patrol area Guards, inside the prison walls, were not permitted to carry guns lest the prisoners gain control of firearms. These prisoners, part of some 750, were cornered by guards and placed in the fenced-in hospital area. (AP Wirephoto, copyright, 1954, by Toronto Star).

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Aircrafts advanced in an otherwise mixed stock market today..

Trading was moderately active at the start and prices generally higher But soon the pace slowed considerably As a more cautious tone prevailed the number of losers increased Changes were mostly minor fractions, however, in the early afternoon.

Aircrafts developed the most investor interest. But steels, motion pictures and rubber producers were also generally higher. Oils and radio-television issues tended to ease while the rest of the market was a jumble of small gains and losses.

A few issues attracted sizable support. These included Hilton Hotels, eaboard Air Line Railroad Mengel, Grace Co, Douglas Aircraft and Boeing.

Others gaining ground were U S Steel, general Motors, Goodyear, United Aircraft, Southern California Edison, Air Reduction, duPont, Santa Fe, United Air Lines and Paramount.

Somewhat lower were Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Caterpillar, Radio Corp, Zenigh, Kennecott Copper, Union Carbide, American Tobacco, Baltimore & Ohio and Johns Manville.

Polio Chapter To Erect Booth At County Fair

Exhibit To Show Fight Being Conducted With March of Dimes Fund

A display explaining certain phases of polio cure and prevention will be erected in a booth sponsored by the Marion County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at the county fair beginning Saturday.

Bert Freed, chairman of the Emergency March of Dimes, said the purpose of the display is "to show exactly what is being done with March of Dimes funds to fight the menace of polio." He added that the exhibit "is loaned to us by the National Foundation without charge. It was prepared by display experts and it should attract a lot of favorable attention at the fair."

Manned by Volunteers

The exhibit will be manned by a group of local volunteers who will be on hand at the fair to answer questions concerning March of Dimes activities.

"People who see the display will be happy to learn how much is actually being done to find a preventive for polio," Freed said. He explained that although the principal purpose of the exhibit is not to raise funds, there will be a donation box in the booth.

The fair exhibit is part of the current campaign to replenish the local chapter's treasury. The chapter currently is in debt because of the increased number of polio cases and the rising expenses of treatment.

The present emergency campaign began on Aug. 16 and will continue through Aug. 21. The goal for the drive, which is based on a quota of "a dollar a family" in Marion County, must be reached by that time.

Letters Mailed

As soon as the campaign began, the local chapter mailed letters to every home and business in Marion County. Returns from those letters, which emphasized the danger of the financial situation, were starting to come in by the first of this week.

"We certainly are thankful for the cooperation we've received from the residents of Marion County," Freed said, "but we've still got a long way to go to make this drive a success."

RANCHETTE SCHEDULES FILM

Featured religious film at the Brookside Bible Ranchette Saturday night will be "Symphony of Life," with Dale Evans in the principal role. It is a presentation of "the story of man as told in the Bible." No charge is made for the pictures shown at these drive-in services. The Ranchette is located on Route 529, three and a half miles east of Cardington and is sponsored by the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Marion.

Modernization Project Asked To Save Ohio River Waterway

LOUISVILLE, Ky (UP—Warnings are being sounded up and down the Ohio River Valley that one of America's great inland waterways is deteriorating rapidly and may lose much of its usefulness unless a modernization pro-

The situation was outlined recently by George W Hubley Jr., executive vice president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association

It was the OVIA which in the 1890's began a campaign that in 1910 resulted in the start of the huge project of canalizing the Ohio River—building a series of dams and locks to provide a nine-foot stage all the way from Pittsburgh to Cairo.

That work was completed in 1929, and since then the Ohio has become one of the world's major waterways and the key to a huge industrial complex that has been called "America s Ruhr"

In 1952, for example, the Ohio River carried 56,000,000 tons of paid freight — about twice the amount carried by the Panama Canal during the same year Steel, oil, coal, automobiles—these represented the bulk of the tonnage

This water highway attracted to its banks industrial concentrations such as the huge railroad yards at Rusell, Ky, big electric appliance and tractor plants at Louisville a new steel plant at Owensboro, Ky, atomic energy plants at Portsmouth, O, and Paducah, Ky, and many more

But time and progress are beginning to take their toll Some of the dams and locks, especially the older ones on the upper river and Dam 41 and the Portland Canal locks at Louisville, have deteriorated Stone walls are crumbling, equipment is wearing out.

More serious, perhaps, is the fact that the diesel towboat has led to longer and longer strings of freight barges in single tows. Sometimes these barge tows stretch out more than 1,000 feet—longer than the S S Queen Mary. But the present locks were built for tows of 600 feet or less.

This means that many of the bigger tows must break their tows every 20 to 40 miles and "double-lock," around each of the big roller dams in the river. This is time-consuming and adds greatly to the cost of river transortation.

The Corps of Engineers has a plan for the Ohio, and the OVIA is campaigning to get it through Congress.

The engineers would like to replace the obsolete system of 46 locks and dams with 21 modern, long pool dams that would accomodate today's long barge tows in a single locking.

The association, Hubley said, has recommended that Congress first apropriate $5 824 000 to begin constrction of new locks and dams at New Cumberland, Pa, below Pittsburgh, where the old ones are near collapse and to build new higher dams at Greenup and Markland, Kv Each of these would replace two or more old dams.

That would be only a start. The money but insists that these steps OVI readily agrees that the pro- are necessary to avert a real crisis gram needed would require per- along this vital artery of commerce haps 20 years of work and a lot of and industry.

Older Houses Receiving New Lease on Life

Increasingly familiar to modern vocabularies is the word "geriatrics"—meaning the science of medical and hygienic care of aged persons The world is no longer willing to surrender all hope for persons who have reached advancing years, their periods of usefulness are being fruitfully extended

This same tendency is now evolving an architectural and structural counterpart' people who own old sturdily-built homes—blessed with the traditional charm of high-ceilinged roominess—are finding new ways to modernize these mature dwellings to give them up-to-date comfort and a new lease on residential life

In recent years, some of these homes built generations back have fallen to criticism because they were hard to heat, drafty and generally uncomfortable, although their conscientious original construction was so sound they were capable of standing almost forever

Many of these handsome old homes are now being saved by the simple addition of mineral wool insulation, an improvement that endows the structures with new warm comfort, new heating economy and added fire protection Mineral wool also known as rock wool and glass wool has the added advantage of making a home cooler in hot weather—by blocking off the excessive outside heat that comes from the down-beating summer sun in all geographical areas

In new homes mineral wool insulation is installed in batts and blankets—but modern pneumatic methods make it equally available, in granulated form for existing construction

French Terms Dubious

6-Nation Brussels Talks Could Seal Fate of EDC

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Leaders of the six European army nations came to the Belgian capital Wednesday for crucial talks on French demands imperiling the projected European Defense Community.

From all sides opposition mounted to French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's proposals for major revisions in the EDC treaty. But reports from Paris said Mendes-France would tell his colleagues at the foreign ministers' conference opening here today that only his new European army plan could be approved by the French National Assembly.

Agreement Doubtful

Many observers doubted that an acceptable formula could be worked out for the six-nation army in which a rearmed West Germany would pool her troops with those of France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

U.S. officials in Washington already have expressed fears that the long-nurtured EDC plan, first proposed in October 1950 by France's then defense minister, Rene Pleven, is doomed.

So far the five other EDC nations have given evidence of nothing but opposition to the French proposals. Critics contend they rob the army plan of much of its supranational aspect. All argue the amendments would require new parliamentary approval by the four nations—all but Italy and France—which have ratified the pact. The West Germans consider the proposals raise new discriminations against them.

French View Stated

Mendes-France was reported ready to answer the critics with the argument that even a much-modified army plan is better than no army at all, and that the EDC pact as now drafted cannot win approval in his National Assembly.

French sources said Mendes-France believes a treaty amended as he proposes would secure approval of a majority of the lower house's entire 627 members. Only this majority can override an adverse vote in the French senate, the Council of the Republic.

The Mendes-France amendments among other things, would allow any members to withdraw from EDC if American and British troops were pulled out of Europe, limit the EDC treaty's length to that of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, forbid the stationing of German troops on French soil and withhold final French ratification pending a new try at settlement with Russia of the German question.

ALUMNI SET RECORD

Wittenberg College alumni in the Marion area set a new participation record in the 1954 alumni fund effort just closed, the college has announced. Seventy-seven per cent of the Wittenbergers in the Marion area — 20 of 26 — contributed to the fund to place second among those in the 46 areas into which Wittenberg alumni are divided.

TO START CONSTRUCTION

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Dr. N. B. Hasler, superintendent of the state tuberculosis hospital here, said today construction will begin soon on an $897,000 building adjoining two 20-year-old hospital wings. Other parts of the older hospital are to be razed. The hospital will serve five counties, Allen, Auglaize, Mercer, Shelby and Van Wert.

Color Film Slated For Tent Services

Saturday night's religious film presentation at the Gospel Tent in Garfield Park, sponsored by the Maranatha Bible Church, will be "This Gathering Storm," a missionary picture released by Rev. Bob Pierce, president of World Vision, Inc. This new wide-screen production had its premiere in Marion at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum earlier in the year, a "dramatic study of the lands of Asia and the impending story breaking over its head."

Color photography was used in portraying scenes in Japan, the Korean battlefront, and India, showing customs of the various lands and new movements on foot disrupting traditions, agitation for new nationalism, and general unrest of the people. Other documentary pictures made by Rev. Pierce have been "The Flame," "38th Parallel," "China Challenge," and "World Vision News: Korean Edition." He is internationally known as a minister, missionary and United Nations news correspondent. His missionary corporation has aided many Korean refugees and has founded baby homes, orphanages, widow's homes and a hospital in Korea, and has aided Japan, Formosa and India in care of the needy by contributions of clothing and money. He narrates his new 65-minute length film which has character roles played by Joyce Compton, Edo Mita, Aly Wassil, Rheda Williams, and Gregory Walcott. There will be no admission charge.

Give to the EMERGENCY MARCH OF DIMES

It's easy to become frightened when polio strikes around us. As epidemics descend upon the nation, the terror of crippling polio moves close to you and your children. UNTIL NOW, that threat has been met by the March of Dimes, fighting YOUR fight against polio.

BUT TODAY, March of Dimes Funds are exhausted!

The historic attempt to PREVENT POLIO through the development of a trial vaccine and the use of gamma globulin will require many millions of dollars in this year alone if we are to be successful.

This unprecedented drain on funds comes at a time when tens of thousands of patients are desperately in need of the costly care that will help them to walk again.

And—most disturbing—polio epidemics once again are aflame in countless communities which depend upon the March of Dimes for iron lungs, medical personnel and financial assistance.

There can be no defense without funds!

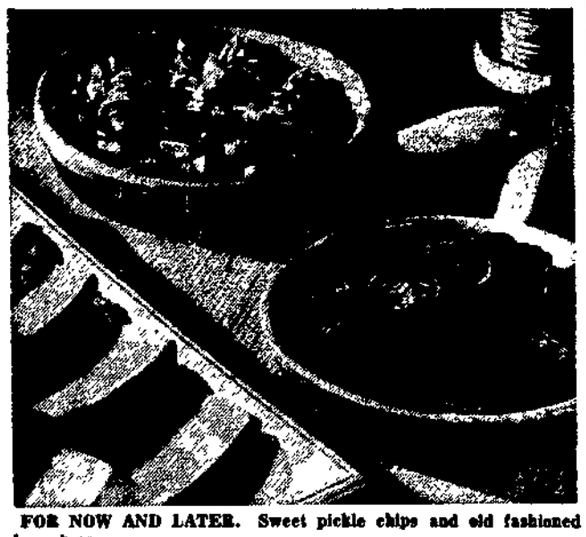
Homemade Pickles Are Easy To Make

Chips and Relish, Sliced Ham and Cheese Are Tasty Buffet Foods

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Follow a traditional American kitchen custom—put up some pickles and relishes. You don't have to make them in the huge quantity your mother or grandmother did—row on row of shining jars to fill ample storage shelves. You can put up a small batch—three to six pints—and have old - fashioned satisfaction and wonderful eating.

Open a jar or two to serve with sliced ham and thin slices of Swiss and cheddar cheese for a cold buffet. Hoard the other jars to use when company comes for winter suppers. You'll enjoy announcing that they are homemade; your family will beam with pride; your guests will feel specially honored!



FOR NOW AND LATER. Sweet pickle chips and old fashioned chow-chow.

SWEET PICKLE CHIPS

Ingredients: 4 pounds pickling cucumbers (3 to 4 inches long), 1 quart distilled white vinegar, 3 tablespoons salt, 1 tablespoon mustard seed, ¼ cup sugar, 3-1-3 cups distilled white vinegar, 5¾ cups sugar, 2¼ teaspoons celery seed, 1 tablespoon whole allspice.

Method: Wash cucumbers thoroughy, scrubbing with a small vegetable brush; cut into ¼ inch slices; do not peel. Mix with 1 quart vinegar, 3 tablespoons salt, mustard seed and ¼ cup sugar in large saucepan; simmer, covered, for 10 minutes. Drain; discard liquid. Place cucmber slices into hot sterilized jars. Meanwhile heat 3 1-3 cups vinegar, 5¾ cups sugar, celery seed and allspice together; stir until sugar is dissolved, then allow mixture to reach boiling point. Allow to simmer while filling jars to within ⅛ inch from top. Be sure vinegar solution covers vegetables. Seal each jar at once. Makes 5 pints.

OLD-FASHIONED CHOW-CHOW

Ingredients: 1 quart (½ of a medium head) chopped cabbage, ¾ pound (3 medium) onions (chopped), 3 green peppers (coarsely chopped), 3 sweet red peppers coarsely chopped), 2 cups (¾ pound), 2 cups (¾ pound) chopped green tomatoes, 2 tablespoons pickling salt, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard 3 cups distilled white vinegar, 1¼ cups sugar, teaspoon turmeric, ¾ teaspoon ground ginger, 1 tablespoon mustard seed, 1½ teaspoons celery seed, 1½ teaspoons mixed whole pickling spice.

Method: Wash and prepare vegetables; mix with salt. Cover; let stand overnight; drain. In kettle, mix mustard with a small amount of the vinegar; add remaining vinegar, sugar, turmeric, ginger, mustard seed, celery seed and pickling spice. Simmer 20 minutes. Add vegetables; simmer 10 minutes. Continue simmering while quickly packing one hot sterilized jar at a time. Fill to within ⅛ inch from top. Be sure liquid covers vegetables. Seal each jar at once. Makes 3 to 4 pints. Use relish within 6 months.

If you want to try other small-batch recipes, you'll find them in one of last - summer's cookbook crop, "Old - Time Pickling and Spicing Recipes" by Florence Brobeck (Barrows). There's a delightful collection of butters, catsups, chutneys and pickles here. Brandied and spiced fruits, plus nincemeats, come in for treatment, too.

Rural Residents Set Up Recreational Programs

FT. PIERRE, S. D. (UP)—The farm and ranch children of the rural area west of here didn't have to go gadding off to town this summer for their fun. They had a summer recreational program of their own.

The program was centered at the new lighted baseball and rodeo grounds, believed to be the only illuminated arena in the nation.

The grounds are at a highway intersection, which is the hub of a rural community of some 450 families within a radius of 25 miles.

Because the country schools of the area are too small to carry on athletic activities, the parents decided they needed a community athletic center where the children could go for instruction and supervised play. They raised $13,000 for the baseball-rodeo project.

"Our children have to get their fun somewhere," said Roy Norman, one of the promoters, "and we decided to try to give it to them at home—to keep them from gadding off to town."

WELL, I SWAN!

TULSA, Okla. (UP) — Three baby swans did nicely at the Mohawk Park Zoo here under care of a foster mother—a chicken. A zoo employe, Lawrence Fletcher, said his hen was set to hatching three swan eggs after the eggs' parents had broken two other eggs. The hen cared for the cygnets as they grew up on a diet of grass and prepared food.

The earth is 7,918 miles in diameter.

Lobsters Are No Dopes, Leading Zoologist Says

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — The primitive lobster has a mechanism that flashes "tilt," tells him whether he's going up or down, and contains a built-in speedometer, according to Melvin Cohen, zoologist at the University of California at Los Angeles.

The mechanism is known as a statocyst and functions somewhat like a human's inner ear, he explained.

It consists of a sac containing grains of sand, fluid and tiny hairs. Pressure of sand and fluid against the hairs set up nerve impulses that carry messages to the brain.

The delicate mechanism sends out four types of messages. One tells whether the lobster is moving up or down, another furnishes direction (left or right, frontward or backward), a third signals tilt and rate of movement, and the fourth picks up vibrations from the ocean floor.

Political Expert Blasts Centralized Government

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — Not less politics, but better politics, is needed in the nation, according to Dr. Stuart A. MacCorkle, director of the University of Texas' Institute of Public Affairs. He believes better government is based on a "srong and wholesome local government.

"Government centralization is the curse of the world," he explained. "This has proved to be true in Europe, in Russia and in the near East."

To keep government from getting control of its citizens, MacCorkle said individuals must "take an unselfish hand in its operations—not just once every two or four years, but week by week and day by day.

"It is easy to criticize and condemn local government," he added. "It is something else to improve it. Too few of us are ready to make the sacrifice in time and money to correct the ills and faults we are so skillful in pointing out to our friends."

Clothing Forgotten, City Is Thrown Into Uproar

GROUVERNEUR, N. Y. (UP)—A lapse of memory by a father and son had this northern New York community in quite an uproar recently.

Police found a complete set of boy's clothing neatly folded beside a quarry swimming pit, but the owner was home in bed sound asleep.

It seems that the boy, Roger Stiles, had gone swimming in the pit while his father stood on the shore and watched him. When he finished the swim, Roger forgot to change back into his street clothes from his swim trunks and the father and son went home.

"We just drove on home and forgot the clothing," the elder Stiles said.

DUCK DUPLEX

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—A game manager, B. H. Popov, reported that two ducks were found nesting in the same hollow tree in northern Forest country. A hooded merganser entered the tree through a hole near the ground. A wood duck had a private entrance about 10 feet higher up.

Bachelors Have Rough Time in New York Area

NEWBURGH, N Y. — (UP) — Males in this downstate New York community find themselves outnumbered by females in every age except one—the 5 to 14 category.

Census figures broken down recently by a city committee show that in the so-called marrying range—21 to 35 years of age—there are 3,360 men to 3,592 women.

Perhaps the age group scrutinized most closely for possible Leap Year "developments" was the 21 to 24 range. Undoubtedly the spirits of the 1,015 women in the group sagged when they learned there were only 795 males in the same age bracket.

Miss Frances Levy has been executive secretary of the Cincinnati Redlegs for 25 years.

Upper Sandusky

Ruth J. Binau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto O. Binau of this city, has successfully completed the requirements for admission to Capital University, Columbus, according to an announcement by James P. Shultz, director of admissions. Miss Binau plans to enroll in the cadet teachers training curriculum.

—:—

St. Paul Lutheran Church in Upper Sandusky was the scene of a lovely summer wedding, Sunday, Aug. 15 at 3 p.m. Miss Carol Ann Cope and Glenn Edward Smalley, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. F. LeRoy Sarver.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle with a slight sweep, fashioned with a wide portrait neckline formed by the scallop of the lace, a fitted basque bodice and short sleeves with mitts forming points over the hands. Her skirt was layer upon layer of nylon tulle. An overskirt of lace over an old-fashioned hoop and crinoline petticoat. Her fingertip veil of imported silk English illusion fell from a matching Chantilly lace pillbox. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

Mrs. Gene Binau, a close friend of the bride, was matron of honor; Miss Carol Crane of Perrysburg, maid of honor; and Miss Charlotte Gladish of Lorain, Miss Marilyn Pfeifer and Miss LaDena Roth, both of this city, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns of powder blue taffeta, princess style. Darlene Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, was flower girl, and the ring-bearer was Ronald Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Newell.

Mrs. Morris J. Kuenzli was soloist. Miss Mary Zahn was organist. Both are from Upper Sandusky. Serving the bridegroom as best man was Raymond, Smalley, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cope of near Upper Sandusky. She is a graduate of Upper Sandusky High School and Bowling Green State University, where she majored in home economics. Mr. Smalley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smalley of near Upper Sandusky and is a graduate of Upper Sandusky High School. Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Thumbs Found To Be Help in Identifying Ills

CHICAGO — (UP) — The position of a patient s thumb may be an important clue in diagnosing brain paralysis, according to Dr Temple Fay, Philadelphia psychiatrist who described his simple thumb tests in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Fay said some cases can be tentatively diagnosed almost as soon as the patient walks into the office

Specific parts of the brain control specific muscles and movements, he said Thus, an abnormal position of the thumb in relation to the fingers or to the hand and wrist while walking is characteristic of certain types of paralysis .

Fay, a neurosurgeon, said thumb tests roughly can separate patients who have disturbances of the spinal cord and the cerebellum Tentative diagnoses can be made quickly for such disorders as encephalitis, multiple sclerosis meningitis or arteriosclerosis

For example, he said an inflammation of the spinal cord such as polio may enable a patient to place the tip of the thumb completely back of the knuckle of the index finger

A thumb drawn into the palms of the hand may indicate spastic paralysis, Fay said Patients with central brain conditions such as shaking palsy or Parkinson s disease cannot repeatedly and rapidly touch the tip of the thumb to the tip of the index or middle finger, he said.

Officer Is Right, Judge Says; Traffic Fine Paid

ST LOUIS (UP) — The woman driver told the court she had the nickel in her hand but forgot to put it in the parking meter

'But I was in the store only five minutes,' she told City Judge Robbert G Dowd, 'before I remembered and came out There was a ticket on the car. Now is that right?"

The judge said it was right, and it showed the traffic police were alert

As for punishment, Dowd said maybe she shouldn't be allowed to drive the car for a week But since she was a first offender that might be too much The regular fine would suffice

'I'll go right down and pay the fine" Dowd told his wife Marcellian "That will be one dollar I'll take it out of your allowance next week."

Power Patents Still Issue

Ike's Atomic Plans Given Final Congress Approval

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower now has a bill carrying out his sweeping new program to open the way for a private atomic power industry and to bolster European defenses with more data on nuclear weapons.

The House put Congress' final approval on the long-debated measure by voice vote Tuesday. The Senate had accepted the compromise version Monday.

But Chairman Cole (R—NY) of the Senate—House Atomic Energy Committee served notice he intends renewing a fight next January over disputed patent provisions which prompted much of the Senate's bitter 13-day debate on the original bill.

The measure sent to the White House requires the sharing of all civilian patents for five years on a free basis. After that, owners of developments not made under government auspices can get exclusive patent rights for 17 years, renewable for the same period.

This was a compromise between the House position calling for exclusive patents at the outset and the original Senate demand for 10 years of compulsory patent-sharing.

Cole told the House Tuesday that, if reelected, his first job in January will be to introduce legislation to repeal the compulsory patent-sharing clauses which he called "distasteful and un-American."

Rep. Price (D—Ill), another conferree, said the final patent clauses were nearly the same as originally recommended by the atomic committee and corresponded to President Eisenhower's own proposals.

The atomic measure, which the President has termed of "utmost importance," provides authority for:

1. Disclosure to allies of limited secrets on the external characteristics and performance of nuclear weapons, and defenses against them. This has been described as the heart of the President's plan to bolster Europe's defenses through greater reliance on A—weapons.

2. Unveiling of heretofore secret details on the civilian uses of atomic energy and to start negotiations toward carrying out his proposal for a global A—pool for peaceful agreements must be approved by Congress.

3. The Atomic Energy Commission to grant 40—year renewable licenses for private industry to operate atomic plants and handle fissionable materials.

4. The AEC to build—after further congressional approval— full-scale atomic plants to demonstrate the feasibility of nuclear power and for other government agencies to apply for nuclear licenses, if Congress approves.

Preference in the sale of atomic power must go to cooperatives or publicly owned utilities. These bodies also get preference in obtaining nuclear licenses.

5. Specific congressional approval for the disputed presidential directive ordering the AEC to contract with a southern utility group for a new steam plant at West Memphis, Ark. The power would be supplied to the Tennessee Valley Authority to replace electricity supplied to atomic plants. Congress barred a proposal in the contract to reimburse the utility companies for federal taxes.

Let's Explore Ohio

The site of Ft. St. Clair, now a 90-acre park at Eaton in Preble County, last year attracted 118,166 visitors, according to the records of the Ohio Historical Society. Here, in the severe winter of 1791-92, a log stockade fort was erected by a military force under Maj. John S. Gano to guard the supply line along the western frontier between Ft. Hamilton at Cincinnati and Ft. Jefferson, the most advanced post in the Indian country. William Henry Harrison, later a general and President of the United States, commanded the guard while Ft. St. Clair was being built. Several battles were fought between the American forces and the Indians in this vicinity. In one engagement, the famous Miami Chief, Little Turtle, commanded the Indian force which attacked a detachment of 100 mounted militia at Ft. St. Clair.

$22 Million Airport Aid Bill Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — Local communities will share a 22 million dollar appropriation approved by the Senate yesterday to help communities build airports, provided the White House approves the measure.

The money will be spent this fiscal year, matching funds gathered by the local communities on a 50-50 basis. The bill had been approved by the House Tuesday. The airport item was included in a compromise version of a big money bill for various purposes.

The Senate also passed and sent to the White House a bill continuing for two years authority for federal aid in constructing schools in areas where population totals have been swollen by defense and other governmental activities. There was no official estimate of probable costs.

The earth is 81.27 times as massive as the moon.

GOOD POLICY

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — (UP) — A woman arrested for selling lottery tickets said she did it for the exercise. "My doctor told me I needed exercise," she explained to officers. "Walking is good exercise, so I decided to sell policy. You get a lot of walking selling the numbers and then taking around the winning ones."

Judge Refuses To Reduce Jail Sentence for 8

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Joseph M. Clifford yesterday refused to reduce sentences of eight union men convicted of property bombings last Nov. 30 during a strike here.

The judge allowed the consecutive terms to stand and refused bail for the eight while their cases move to the Second District Court of Appeals. The men received 4 to 41 year sentences. They entered Ohio Penitentiary Tuesday after conviction on four charges resulting from the attacks.

They pleaded guilty to bombing cars and garages of three non-striking employes of North American Aviation, Inc., during its 54-day strike last winter. The men were members of the CIO-United Auto Workers Union.

If the judge had allowed concurrent terms, the men would have been sentenced from one to 20 years and eligible for parole after nine months. Under their present sentences, they must wait three years before moving for parole.

Their attorney, R. Brooke Alloway, said the consecutive penalties show an "abuse of discretion." He claimed the families of the men now are destitute.

The eight are Robert K. Weed, 3, Elmo Bothman, 31, Robert L. Stuller, 32, Raymond Hoskinson, 36, Robert White, 27, all of Columbus; Bernard Angus, 45, of nearby Reynoldsburg; Daniel L. Mason, 31, and Henry Woltz, 23, both of Lancaster.

Pastor Killed, Two Hurt Under Tree Hit by Lightning

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — The Rev. Elmer Neuenschwander, 31, Fort Wayne, was killed and his two companions burned badly Wednesday when lightning struck them on a golf course in a heavy cloudburst.

Elmer's brother, Elbert Neuenschwander, 27, Hamilton, Ohio, and their brother-in-law, the Rev. Donald McIntosh, 39, Hampstead, Md. suffered second and third degree burns. The Rev. McIntosh was reported in good condition, but no report was given on the condition of the younger Neuenschwander.

The three men were golfing on the Brookwood golf course, seven miles southwest of Fort Wayne, when a sudden rainstorm began. The lightning struck a 70-foot oak tree under which they sought shelter.

SEEK CAUSE OF BLAZE

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Firemen today investigated a mysterious blaze that leveled a padlocked disorderly house on Main Street here. Fire destroyed the building yesterday, causing a loss estimated at $9,000. Common Pleas Judge William M. McClain ordered the building padlocked last May on action brought by Prosecutor Charles Anderson. The building has been unoccupied since. Cause of the blaze was undetermined.

Nearly half of the 20 million trucks in the world today are in the United States.

Arbitration Issue Decision Held Off By Mailers Union

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The International Mailers Union has postponed until next year a decision on whether it will include arbitration agreements in its labor contracts.

This action followed a long debate on whether the union would agree with the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. that arbitration should be in contracts.

The union's executive council will study the arbitration proposal and report to the next convention, to be held at Akron, Ohio.

Delegates also voted to conduct a referendum on a proposal to assess all members for a defense fund and to raise dues 50 cents per week.

The delegates authorized the executive council to "explore the possibility" of affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. The IMU now is an independent.

A Tradition of Service

Herbert Hoover Jr. could have only one possible motive for accepting an appointment to be undersecretary of state, succeeding Walter Bedell Smith. He has inherited from his father a tradition of public service that has been adding luster to the family since Herbert Hoover's name became synonomous for international good will in the years after World War I.

It has been observed by many world travelers that people in distant lands rarely know the names of any contemporary Americans, except Herbert Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt—Hoover because of his personal services as a relief administrator, Roosevelt because he was president of the United States at a moment in history when this country gained world dominance.

Amid the good wishes that go to the younger Hoover as he takes over one of government's most demanding positions, there should be an extra portion of good wishes for his predecessor. Gen. Smith has been one of the most useful men of his generation—a soldier, statesman, emissary of good will and public executive. He is illustriously typical of thousands of loyal government employes who do the spade work of public office, asking nothing but the privilege of service and rarely getting the accolades bestowed on their superiors. The State Department has a new undersecretary who will be capable. He will succeed a man who was equally capable.

Below Expectations

The bugaboo of economics is comparison with the highest levels of the past and the highest expectations of the future. The White House statement on economic conditions was trying to avoid this a week ago when it cited the industrial production of the last six months as an indication of current economic activity.

Since there has been no important fluctuation during this period. The White House contends that economic activity has reached a point of stabilization. It is of less importance, therefore, that the point is below the expectations of those who were thinking of war gooms in the past and speculative booms of the future than it is that the point is where it is likely to remain for a while.

Eventually, the United States must establish a rational basis of comparison for economic statistics—not merely an historic basis like that used for parity calculations or the wholesale price index but a current basis that will reflect the economic realities of the day.

If there are going to be economic comparisons—and they are unavoidable—then the comparisons must be meaningful. They must avoid the pitfall of comparing current rates of production in the steel industry, for example, with rates that could be reached only under the forced draft of war production. They must reject the assumption that the automobile industry should be able to sell each year more cars than it sold the year before. They must take into account the elemental phenomenon of economic behavior—the two steps forward, one step backward characteristic of economic progress.

Those who complain that economic activity is below their expectations should be challenged to declare what their expectations were and why they were pitched so high that only a war boom could have fulfilled them.

France Has Problems Too

For the next few days while the French premier tries to get his country off dead-center on the issue of the European Defense Community, Americans would do well to remember that France has problems, too

Premier Mendes - France is trying to solve the problems that have been hanging fire longest. As the head of the first do-something government that France has had in many years, he is committed to a policy of action. He promised to get France off the hook in Indochina, and he did. He promised to end the shilly-shallying on EDC — and that's next on the program.

Americans may not like his solution of this problem any more than they like the French premier's solution of the Indochinese problem. But there is one area of agreement that they can enter into without misgivings. Mendes-France contends that France must quit marking time, and so do Americans. Rather than watch France deteriorate through political paralysis, leaving its friends uncertain about its future, Americans would prefer to see it come to terms with the realities of its own existence.

A European Defense Community without France would be a fake and a sham. On the other hand, an EDC that included France would be a delusion unless France had the determination and resources to hold up its end of the agreement. This is what Premier Mendes-France is striving to do—to give his country the determination and resources to hold up its end of any agreement it may make.

The agreement may not suit the United States. It may not suit West Germany. It may not suit the other members of EDC. But any agreement at all under the circumstances would be better than no agreement at all.

Intent Unmistakable

Congress Proves Deep Contempt for Communists

The dramatic effort of Congress trying in the last few days of the session to write a bill that will reflect its deep-seated contempt for the Communist party in the United States is unquestionably evidence of the nation's alertness to the dangers of infiltration by subversive elements.

Since Republicans and Democrats in both the House and the Senate joined by overwhelming votes to approve various proposals of different phraseology — but all of them rendering the Communist organization illegal as a political party and calling it a conspiracy—there can be little doubt that many months of agitation on this subject have finally had a cumulative effect.

For Martin Dies, long the foe of the Communists and the man who was berated by the Roosevelt administration for "seeing Reds every night under the bed," it has been an experience in vindication as he sees the Democratic party leaders sponsoring his bill to outlaw the Communist party, while the Republicans join in passing it.

UNFORTUNATELY, some of the new problems to be created by the bill just passed are greater for the enforcement agencies of the government than they have been before, and perhaps the new bill is so worded that it will be rendered inoperative in part when the courts get to examining the constitutionality of some of the phrases.

The administration did not handle itself too well on the issue, and Republicans in Congress found themselves outmaneuvered by Democrats, though so far as the country is concerned there will not be too much concern over the fact that the Democrats and Republicans vied with each other to outlaw the Communist party.

The Department of Justice wanted the powers so phrased that it could prosecute the leaders and those who teach the overthrow of government.

It has not been prepared for the task of putting 25,000 Communists in jail, which is what is called for if the pending bill becomes law. For the new measure would require that all Communist members be arrested and tried.

The guide for juries would be to convict anyone who has been listed as a member or contributed money to the Communist party or has made himself subject to its discipline or has written or spoken in any way that carried out the plans of the Communist organization. But it stipulates that an alleged member must be proved to have known the purposes of the organization.

THERE WERE objections from some of the constitutional lawyers in the Senate but because of the politics — that is, the hazard of being recorded against anything which condemns the Communist party — the vote was virtually unanimous in every instance

The fact remains that trying to write laws on the floor of the Senate or House is not conducive to the enactment of clear - cut legislation.

It may well be that the effort to load down the measure with clauses impossible to enforce or conflicting with sections of existing laws against subversives will so confuse the issue as to make difficult the actual attainment of the objectives of the legislation.

There has been talk of a presidential veto — which, politically at least, would embarrass the President — but this is not likely.

Th ndney nwdys koobatee

The tendency nowadays is to accept unpalatable legislation and seek immediate amendment at the next session, and that's probably the wisest course to follow, especially with an election coming on in November.

ALL SORTS of predictions are made that the new measure, if enacted, will be held invalid by the courts but, to save other sections of the bill, what is known as a "separability clause" has been attached so that, if one part is held unconstitutional, that will not affect the validity of the other parts.

One thing is clear — this Congress is well aware that Communists must be uprooted and that infiltration in labor unions and American institutions of all kinds must be stopped.

Whether the votes just recorded by the Democrats in Congress will spare them the "20 years of treason" type of attack in the coming campain or whether the Republicans will nevertheless point to the belated nature of the voting to outlaw the Communist party, the fact remains that it's almost unanimous — nearly everybody in Congress wants to see the Communist influence driven out of America.

Best of Everything

This is the quarterly gripe column. Written on one of the lousiest days of summer, a perfect background for getting complaints out of the system. It should be warm and balmy; instead it's cold, windy and rainy.

There's one of those exciting Floater Insurance policies in front of me, with the reminder that it has expired and a "please remit" —in husky figures

Also make a new list of what you've got that might be stolen, from a stickpin to the lawn roller, and where do you keep them? How do I know, couldn't find half of them if I had to.

To find out how you're insured send for an astronomer, an auctioneer and a burglar. The astronomer, with telescope, will translate the fine print—maybe. The auctioneer will guess what your junk would bring at forced sale and the burglar can furnish a reasonable notion as to what's worth stealing.

YOU'LL BE SURPRISED how much you've got that nobody would want, except the Salvation Army. But just the same you put down box car figure values.

When you add 'em up you've kidded yourself into owing the insurance company so much that you might better swap places with the burglar.

How glorious 'twould be if the companies would hire a newspaper rewrite wizard to set down in the English language what you have got to do to win, and send it along with the bill. Much more painless extraction.

It's too bad too that radio and TV announcers don't have something like a casting spinner. They can't pull back the bulls that they toss into the ether. But you'd think by now that all of them would be acquainted with every synonym for "sweat", with all of the body deodorants on the air.

Yet the "bull of the week" still is some adenoidal character telling why his sponsor's dope is best to counteract "press-piration."

AND A LOT of the times that the airways sing George M. Cohan's "Grand Old Flag," George must turn over in his grave.

When the famous Yankee Doodle boy wrote it he meant no harm but raised a sizable furor because of one careless word in the chorus. He recalled the first printing, apologized to the flag that he loved and changed the word in the ultimate millions of copies that thrilled America pre-World War I.

Still to this day the line sometimes gets on the air: "You're a grand old flag, a high flying rag—"

I DON'T KNOW WHY I complain; I don't have to wear out TV tubes looking at the "Best of Thisa and Thata," the reruns. Not only that, they don't always admit it.

You sit there in a T shirt, under an electric fan, lapping up a Tom Collins, and a bird on the screen wishes you "Merry Christmas." Then you remember that you met the guy six months ago.

So you turn to another channel, where the best of something else is holding the fort. It's swell work, if you can get away with it, though it's headed for the fate of the home movie, those family pictures that you forced on callers so many times that you don't have any callers any more.

I WROTE to my syndicate suggesting a six weeks vacation while the papers reran "The Best of Tripp."

A fresh punk in the office wrote back, "We've been through the files and can't find six of anything like you mention."

So I started looking. After three days' search the deadline arrived. A masterpiece had to go in the mail that night. I conceded the punk might be right, sat down and wrote this one. It ain't "the best," but it ain't cheatin'. As I said, it's swell work if you can get away with it.

Anyway, the rain just stopped and the sun is shining—which is the Best of verything.

Chinese Fifth Column Busy in Thailand

By Arnold C. Brackman

BANGKOK

The biggest question mark in Thailand today is the Chinese. Are they a Communist fifth column?

Consider these points:

The leader of the Thai Communist party, which operates underground, is Ku Kip, a Chinese Communist. He and his followers disappeared in 1948 when the Communist parties of Southeast Asia staged successive revolts in Burma, Maylaya and Indonesia

Inside Red China today, in the southern province of Yunan, the Chinese have established a self-styled "Free Thai" government. This government, in the familiar Communist pattern, openly declares that its goal is the "Liberation" of Thailand

Last month, after seven years of silence, the former left - wing Thai premier, Pridi Phanomyong, emerged from obscurity and revealed that he had taken refuge in Peiping.

WITH THE INK of the Geneva Agreement, which brought about a cease - fire in Indochina, barely dry, Pridi called for the overthrow of the present Thai government. His appeal appeared in the People's Daily, the official voice of the Red China government and was broadcast over Radio Peiping.

Against this background, the Thais point nervously to the size of the Chinese colony inside Thailand. Out of a total Thai population of 18 million, the Chinese number 3 million or more. This means that one out of every six persons inside Thailand is Chinese.

Many Thais, however, claim that their fear is not so much of a Communist China as that of a strong China, flexing her muscles for the first time in centuries.

The emergence of China at Geneva as a world power, whether in the United Nations or out of it, and Chinese aggressions in Korea and Tibet, plus incursions of the Burma frontier and the large-scale provisioning of aid to Indochina, have not gone unnoticed.

THAILAND HAS always feared the awakening of her giant neighbor. Throughout Thai history, for example, Bangkok avoided recognizing China. It mattered little to the pragmatic Thais whether it was a dynastic, feudal, or a modern, Nationalist China.

But in 1945, when China was accorded world recognition as a member of the Big five and the possessor of coveted U.N. veto power, Thailand was forced to recognize her to gain admittance into the U.N. In 1946, for the first time in history, the Thais and Chinese exchanged ambassadors.

This, of course, was the China of Chiang Kai-shek. Now isolated on Formosa, it still maintains a diplomatic mission in Bangkok and is still recognized by the Thai government as the legal government of China

The story of the Chinese in Thailand is not just black and white, however.

The Chinese minority here is the hardest working group in the country. They run the shops, operate the rice mills and work the tin mines and rubber plantations

Like Chinese elsewhere in Southeast Asia, and the world over, their principal concern is first the family, then business and only lastly, politics. Cowed by their minority role, the Chinese are also an unusually peaceful, law-abiding group.

COLD WAR TENSIONS, however, and surging Nationalist feeling this somewhat. Against their will, the Chinese here are being drawn toward the center of the political arena.

The danger of a Communist fifth column, according to many on-the-scene observers, is not in the Chinese community as such but in the mushrooming Chinese younger generation. Proud of a resurgent China, Communist or otherwise, this element is the primary target of widespread Communist infiltration tactics.

Schools and school teachers are the chief vehicle of Communist penetration In the schools the outlawed, underground Communist party flourishes, too. And from the schools many young Chinese each month disappear into China proper for further indoctrination and education.

That Thai government has not overlooked this development.

In recent weeks, the authorities here have conducted an increasing number of raids on schools, confiscating subversive literature and arresting a score or more of Chinese instructors.

Popular Government

By TRUMAN TWILL

Talking one day recently to the wisest man of my acquaintance about areas of ignorance where ignorance is unforgivable, I could agree with him on these points:

That the weakness of popular government is the weakness of the ordinary run of the American people, who are so everlastingly busy with everything else under the sun that they have neither the time nor inclination to be busy with the sovereignty bestowed on them;

That this weakness has become so chronic and widespread that no corrective measures are possible under existing circumstances because people who have been too busy to take their sovereignty seriously are too busy, by the same token, to take their neglect of sovereignty seriously;

That the majority of people, neither knowing nor caring about the way they are governed, are so inept at the whole business they are not even sketchily informed about the mechanics of government at the levels closest to them: i e, they are totally ignorant about local and state government as well as federal government;

That this creeping ignorance has put the people and their governing officials at the mercy of the handful of specialists who have learned how to use a neglected and misunderstood organization of public service for their own selfish ends;

That the idea has taken hold that the means favored by these specialists are the means of government, itself, and not what they are in fact—a denial of government—to the extent that one frequently publicized specialist in misuse of the public organization could say with good cause to a cabinet official recently that the latter could not be expected to know what kind of "dirty politics was being played" in Washington because the cabinet official was not a professional politician;

That not more than one out of three Americans, if questioned casually, would know the names of half his representatives in Congress, the state legislature and the local legislative body;

That children are being permitted to grow up without ever having read the charter of their liberty, the Constitution, and that few adult Americans could list as many as five of the things which the Constitution specifies in the Bill of Rights shall never be done at the expense of the individual citizen,

That even such basic information as the function of primary elections somehow has gone in one ear and out the other of most citizens, if it ever went in the first ear at all, and that ignorance of this kind crops out in the most unexpected places, such as in the comments of men and women who are assumed to be educated;

That some of the loudest squawking and complaining about government can be relied on to come out of the mouths of the same people who, having no conception of proper government, work tirelessly to corrupt their governing officials — that being their version of government;

That though these things are true about government, that's the way government is bound to be when the people have the power of decision and even though it's far from perfect it's infinitely to be preferred to any kind of government in which a handful of knot-heads make the decisions and usually end up by making most of them the wrong way.

The Soviet and Ponies

"Horse racing is having a boom throughout Soviet Russia, most of it for trotters. There is a mutuels system and a 'daily double.' The tracks are jammed."—News item.

We reached the Russian track early, mingled with the natives and found them much easier to get along with than Russians in most places. They were so deeply involved in studying the charts that they had no time for suspicions, excoriations and obvious animosity. "What do you hear?" and "What's good in the next?" makes people more peaceful than "G'wan, ya warmonger"

In a field behind the barns some shots rang out. Some upster who had given a friend of Malenkov a tip on a sure-thing that had lost in a photo finish, no doubt. In the previous race a Russian-bred horse had crowded a horse of American breeding into the fence. A foul had been claimed but the USSR judges ruled "No foul; just coexistence."

We made friends with a Russian horseplayer. It wasn't easy. He warmed up when he saw we had a sheet full of handicappers' dope. He asked about a certain horse. We read the comment "Good if the stable is shooting today." "The stable had better be shooting or the USSR will be," snapped our friend. He asked about another skinner.

"Doesn't like track," the comment read.

"He will like the track or else!" said the Russian. "What about No. Four?"

"Will bear watching," the chart said

"You can say that again," said the Russian fiercely. "What does the handicapper say of No. Five?"

"Not in form," we said.

"This is a matter for the police. What does a horse mean coming here when not in form?" the Communist horse-player demanded. "They tell me there is a play on the No. Seven horse. What's the handicap sheet say?"

"Waiting for right spot," we said.

"This had better be the right spot. Molotov has a few rubles on him," the man said.

"What of No. Nine?"

"No line"

"That's what the handicapper thinks," sneered the Russian. "The secret police have a complete line on every entry and every jockey in every race. What's the dope on No. 10?"

"May do better next time out," we said.

"That's the favorite," the man barked. "If he doesn't win there will be no next time out."

At this point the horses came onto the track. Three of them were without jockeys. "What's happened?" we asked.

"The three riders made a complete confession a few minutes ago, admitting they had thrown races. They are on their way to Siberia."

"What about the horses?" we asked.

"They are suspected of complicity and will be purged if they don't clear themselves in this race," said the Russian.

4-Phase Attack on Disease

Typhoid Fever Drive Set by Scientists

By JOHN F. SEMBOWER

CHICAGO (NANA)—In the face of a wave of typhoid fever outbreaks throughout the country, medical science is preparing an impressive arsenal of treatments against one of the most deadly and debilitating of human diseases, Dr. A. C. Ivy, head of the department of clinical science at the University of Illinois said today.

Dr. Ivy referred to the results of a recheck just completed of typhoid carriers purged five years ago of the infection at Illinois' Manteno State Hospital, and the announcement by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, Michigan state health commissioner, that the state's health laboratories have developed what he described as the first known cure for typhoid fever, a new antibiotic called synnematin.

The steps against typhoid now fall into four phases, Dr. Ivy said: (1) Boil water and clear the food supply; (2) Vaccinate as a preventive; (3) Utilize the curative effects of the new drug, and (4) Clear up existing carriers and any new ones that may develop during recent contagions by use of a new mixture of drugs employed successfully for the first time at Manteno.

Intravenous Injections

Dr. Ivy also said that intravenous injections of the new Manteno preparation are a good treatment for acute cases of typhoid. Its most dramatic effect, however, has been to purge the unfortunate victims, known as "Typhoid Marys" after a fabulous early carrier of the disease who unwittingly contaminated hundreds of persons, of the infection which they frequently harbor and carry without getting the disease themselves.

Typhoid fever made one of its recurrent leaps back into prominence recently when at least 15 cases developed among children who had been at a day camp in Far Rockaway, Queens, N. Y. A cook there was found to be a carrier. Two hundred wedding banquet guests in Los Angeles were sought after seven cases, including one who died, developed among those who attended. Health officials said that a typhoid carrier either prepared or served the wedding food.

Last spring, a special prosecutor for the Canadian federal department of health who secured conviction in Ottawa of a maker of unpasteurized cheese, declared that typhoid fever from Canadian cheese has caused deaths in almost every province.

5 Years' Search

Development of synnematin as a cure for the disease during five years of experimentation in the Michigan state health laboratories came to light when the state's administrative board requested Governor Williams to submit a bill to a special legislative session which opened Aug. 18. The bill would authorize the board to negotiate royalty agreements with commercial drug firms which might mass produce the new antibiotic.

Dr. Ivy's statement here followed completion by Dr. John A. Vaichulis of a recheck of as many typhoid carriers who were treated five years ago at Manteno as could be found. The survey was made at the request of the Illinois department of public welfare.

Dr. Vaichulis was able to find and test 93 of the 146 original patients. He found them to be "all clear" except for a lone patient who had continued working in a group of typhoid carriers and therefore was subject to repeated reinfections.

The lives of identified typhoid carriers before discovery of the drugs that can completely decontaminate them has been described as one of the little-known miseries of human existence. Carriers necessarily are treated virtually as prisoners on probation and health authorities attempt to keep continual tab on them.

Cannot Leave State

These unfortunate persons cannot leave the state in which they reside without permission. They cannot swim in public places, and must have their own waste disposal systems at home. In this city alone as many as 150 carriers have been registered at one time. There are an estimated 500 known carriers in Illinois. There are proportionate numbers elsewhere in the country.

A tragic consequence of outbreaks such as those currently reported is that a new "crop" of carriers is developed, health authorities stress. A typhoid epidemic in 1939 at the Manteno state hospital affected 453 mental patients. Many died and scores, while cured of active symptoms, remained as carriers.

The state of Illinois built a $1,000,000 sewage disposal system to accommodate 200 carriers kept in isolation at Manteno. This led Dr. Ivy and Dr. Vaichulis to launch a concerted program to find the first effective remedy for a situation which had baffled medical science for centuries. The special hospital at Manteno has since been freed for other uses.

The new treatment is a combination of bacillus subtillin, penicillin, three different sulfa drugs, staticin, which prevents penicillin from being excreted too rapidly, alcohol, and a dye.

Seek 'Natural Enemy'

One of the stratagems employed by the research physicians was to seek the "natural enemy" of the typhoid micro-organism. If it were found to be harmless to humans, it could be used to ferret out the stubborn typhoid germs, which defied dislodging by any other means.

The search for the nemesis of the typhoid bacillus was rewarded early one Sunday morning. Bacillus subtillin, known as the "hay bacillus" because it is found in hay, was pitted against the typhoid bacillus in a drop of milk. The typhoid was knocked out. Later the subtillin was combined with the other ingredients to heighten its lethal punch.

After it had been tested on laboratory animals, Dr. Ivy himself drank several gallons of beef broth containing it and noted no ill effects. It was then administered to the quarantined patients as food and also intravenously. Its effects have held up after a five-year recheck. Intravenous injections now is the recommended procedure.

Although the dramatic original discovery was reported in scientific journals, Dr. Ivy believes it has not been used extensively, largely because of oversight and the beguiling relative infrequency of typhoid today.

The fact that typhoid lies low and strikes out only suddenly is believed by medical authorities to insure it against extinction. But they are recommending that persons who have been exposed should be tested to determine whether they have become carriers.

They believe that the fact that there now is a remedy and that a person identified as a carrier no longer needs fear "a living death," may pave the way for preventing outbreaks which start the cycle of death and disease all over again.

Goes to Washington

SALEM, Ore. — (UP) — Mrs. James W. Mott, widow of Oregon's late Republican congressman, has resigned as vice chairman of the Oregon state central Republican committee and gone to Washington, D. C., to do personnel work for a sub-committee of the armed forces committee in the House of Representatives.

Mrs. Mott long has been active in Oregon politics. She was the only woman to be elected in the Oregon delegations to the last two Republican national conventions.

Rep. William Hess (R-O.) is chairman of the sub-committee. A ranking member of the main committee is Rep. Carl Vinson (D-Ga.), a longtime friend of the Mott family and past chairman of the former naval affairs committee on which Mott served when he was in Congress.

'Fair-Trade' Advocates Alarmed

Off-List Buying Trend Grows in U.S.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Buying off-list is a growing habit with many American families in the present buyer's market.

Many manufacturers wink at the cutting of their regular retail list prices. Many others deplore it and fight it. "Fair trade" advocates see red at the mention of it.

"I can get it for you wholesale," long a popular slogan, is only one of many now.

Discount houses are at war with old-line stores in many cities. Buying clubs have spread through factories and government and industrial offices. Discounts, trade-in allowances, gifts and other sales come-ons characterize this year's auto market. "Loss leaders," and occasional price wars, are a sales gimmick in many lines.

Even the President, in his mid-year report on the economy, takes note of "discounts, concessions, bargain sales, etc., that have been a significant feature of recent markets." He cites them in his contention that "the value of the people's money has remained entirely intact."

Retailers Pet Peeve

Discount houses have been the chief peeve of other retailers of late. These inflation-born houses slash the usual retail markups to sell goods below list prices. Objecting manufacturers say this cheapens their product in the public's eye.

At first the older stores fought the discount houses by stressing the services and conveniences the regular ones offer. But of late a few have been meeting the competition by slashing profit margins themselves, although usually in the traditional guise of clearances or promotions.

One big chain store official, however, predicts that a downward trend in markups of major appliances and electric housewares is in the making.

Manufacturers center their dislike on both the discount houses and the regular retailer who uses "loss leaders," items sold below cost to attract customers to the store.

Stiffen 'Fair Trade' Pacts

Recently both Ekco Products Co. of Chicago and Philco Corp. cut off their lines from all distributors in the New York area, while drawing up new contracts with stiffer "fair trade," or list price clauses, and dropping some dealers who consistently cut list prices or resold the items to stores that do.

A leading battler against "loss leaders" is Emanuel Katz, president of Doeskin Products, maker of tissues. He says he has successfully kept retailers from using his products as off-list promotion items by convincing them that it's to the merchant's benefit to maintain adequate profit margins. He preaches that a "loss leader" price tends to become the fixed price in the housewife's mind and she won't go back to paying the list price later.

Says Policy Justified

Katz says dealers who try to cut Doeskin prices can't get any more to sell. He claims that the company's increased sales total this year justifies its price policy.

But discount houses and "loss leaders" represent only a fraction of off-list buying in this country, according to E. B. Weiss, director of merchandising for the Grey Advertising Agency.

But, he says, five million factory workers belong to buying clubs sponsored either by their employers or by their unions and thus get goods at less than retail list prices. Two million more belong to buying clubs for government workers, he adds.

Weiss contends that many retailers buy "at wholesale" for their families, friends, or even favored customers.

Then there is the auction—not the old-fashioned selling of furniture from the old homestead, but the selling of new stuff from factories, at prices well below list. The auction is spreading fast in many communities.

Central Christian Church Plans Ground-Breaking Ceremonies

Preparations are under way by Central Christian Church to break ground for a new sanctuary Sunday during the Church School hour.

After months of planning by the building committee, final plans of the architect, Charles Oborn of Marion, have been approved. The committee consists of Lawrence Sager, Clayton Brobeck, William Hamor, Francis Roush, and Elmer Weimer. Chairman of the church board is Berkeley M. Smith. Building contractor is W. C. Stumbo of Marion.

Time of the ground breaking ceremony will be 10 40 a.m., and the program will be under direction of the worship committee with Mrs. Florence Stumbo in charge. A group of representative members of the church will take part. Miss Luella Scholl, a charter member of the congregation, will turn the first shovel of ground.

Material of the new structure will be gray brick and the style will conform to the design of the present building which is the former King mansion, a part of the old King family estate on Mt. Vernon Ave. which is now the church property. Located at the south end of the present building, the new sanctuary will seat approximately 380 people. Its size will be 40 by 102 feet. The building which now houses the worship center will be used for educational and social activities.

Members of the church are asked to be present at the ceremonies Sunday, and friends of the congregation are invited to attend, Rev. Ashley G. Booth, pastor, stated.
